

ORDER NEW PROBE OF M'DERMOTT REFERENDUM

Cincinnati, Sept. 17.—Presiding Judge Hoffman, of the Hamilton county court, today instructed the regular September grand jury to investigate the charges of fraud and forgery brought in connection with the circulation of petitions for a referendum on the McDermott liquor license law. The grand jury was instructed to go into the facts behind the assertions that signatures of voters were forged and that the name of a notary was used illegally. Judge Hoffman's action followed the sudden ending today of the special hearing before Judge May, when it was agreed to throw out 445 names, which were in dispute. The hearing was taken before Judge May upon complaints filed by the board of elections, through Prosecutor Campbell. It was claimed that many names on the petitions were invalid. Attorney Jos. McGhee, formerly assistant attorney general at Columbus, announced that he, acting for the committee in charge of securing the petitions, had agreed to throw out all disputed names, providing the hearing was stopped. Assistant Prosecutor Rowe, acting for the board of elections, approved that action. Eight petitions, it was charged, were invalid in toto. Six of these, it is claimed, were signed with the forged signature of a notary and two others were faulty in other ways. It was alleged that while Herbert Schaffer, notary, had executed 29 invalid petitions his name, misspelled, was forged to others of the documents. Fifty seven names on other petitions were declared illegal because written with pencils, nine others were declared forgeries.

Paraders Protest Giant War Loan

Mrs. Bartlett Boder. Mrs. Bartlett Boder, one of the first American women to drive an ambulance in the European war, arrived in her home town of New York a few days ago, where she will take a brief vacation.

New York, Sept. 17.—Another session—the third within three days—was held today between members of the Anglo-French financial commission and representatives of big New York, Chicago, Boston and other out of town banking houses who are endeavoring to reach an agreement on the proposed mammoth credit loan to Great Britain and France. Opponents of the loan carried their campaign into Wall street today and announced their sentiment from flaming placards in front of the office of J. P. Morgan and company. "Wall Street's Shame," read one of the several large sign boards held aloft by leaders of a file of men who marched through the financial section as a protest against the loan. The procession ended with a man carrying a big sign on which was painted in red, white and black: "Billions for King George." The paraders stopped in front of the Morgan offices. A crowd collected and detectives or (Continued On Page Eight)

CALL ACTION OF BULGARIA PERILOUS

Paris, Sept. 17.—A dispatch of the Balkan agency from Bucharest says that the leaders of all the opposition parties in Bulgaria have held a meeting at which it was decided to publish an appeal to the country explaining the international political situation as affecting that nation. The appeal will be made on the ground that under the present circumstances the attitude taken by the government is perilous.

U. S. CAVALRYMEN FIGHT MEXICANS

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 17.—American cavalrymen and Carranza soldiers had a fifteen minute battle across the river today near the city limits of Brownsville. Soldiers report they killed one Mexican and hit five others. They saw about fifteen Carranza soldiers in two separate groups.

NINETY DIE IN WRECK

Laredo, Texas, Sept. 17.—The wreck of a Mexican military train resulting in the death of ninety persons occurred Wednesday afternoon one mile out of Saltillo, according to advices here today.

GEORGIA SENATOR'S DAUGHTER AND SON

Mrs. Lucy Hoke Smith Simpson and son. Lieutenant Alston R. Simpson, U. S. N., and his wife, who was Lucy Hoke Smith, daughter of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, will leave Washington soon for Annapolis, where Lieutenant Simpson will take a post-graduate course at the Naval Academy. Mrs. Simpson and her son recently returned from a visit to her parents at Warrenton, Virginia, where they are spending the summer.

WILLIS HAS CHARGE OF CIVIL SERVICE

Columbus, Sept. 17.—State officials pointed out here today that under an opinion of Attorney General Turner, which State Auditor Donahay will follow, Governor Willis will have complete control over the appointment of civil service employees as well as other employees in eight important state departments. This control, they said, comes from a provision of the constitution.

AUSTRIA TO RECALL DUMBA AT ONCE

Washington, Sept. 17.—The Austrian government intends to recall Ambassador Dumba for consultation, according to intimations to Ambassador Penfield when he delivered the note from the United States asking for the return of the ambassador to Austria. Such an arrangement which is in accord with Ambassador Dumba's own request for recall on leave of absence, is satisfactory to the American government. It is understood, however, that Ambassador Dumba would not return to the United States at the termination of his leave. The purpose of these arrangements it is understood is to cause no interruption in the diplomatic relations of the two governments, the change being looked upon as a personal affair. There is every indication from Ambassador Penfield's dispatches that the Austrian government received the American note in a friendly spirit and looks upon it as the usual request of a government for the recall of an ambassador on the ground that his usefulness to his own government could be impaired by his continued presence. It is now expected that Ambassador Dumba will receive word from his own foreign office that he is wanted in Vienna for consultation. The United States will arrange safe conduct and with the Austrian embassy left in charge of a charge d'affaires the incident will be closed.

HARTER APPOINTED Columbus, Sept. 17.—Harold M. Harter, of Toledo, a Republican, today was appointed a member of the Lucas county liquor license board to succeed Charles H. Nauts, a Progressive. The appointment was made by the state liquor license commission. ADD DEPARTMENT Pittsburgh, Sept. 17.—The commission of the board of education announced today that the department devoted to the training for citizenship will be added to the public school system beginning October 4 and continuing in operation for twenty weeks.

Stefansson Safe; Finds New Lands

SUFFRAGETS ADVANCE ON WASHINGTON

San Francisco, Sept. 17.—Miss Frances Jolliffe, of San Francisco and Mrs. Sarah Bard Field, of Portland, Oregon, are on their way to Washington, D. C., carrying with them to present to congress resolutions adopted here yesterday by the women voters' convention and a 500,000 name petition urging congress to enact a national woman suffrage law. The resolutions urge the Susan B. Anthony plan for securing woman suffrage by amendment of the Federal constitution.

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 17.—Vilhjalmar Stefansson the Canadian explorer, who was believed lost in the Arctic not only is alive and well but has discovered a new land in the north and accomplished practically every purpose for which his hazardous journey was undertaken, according to word brought here by the power schooner Ruby, which arrived yesterday from Herschel Island. Stefansson with two companions, Storck Storkerson and Ole Anderson, set out from Martin Point, Alaska, March 22, 1914, over the frozen Polar ocean to search for supposed new lands in the Beaufort sea. Captain S. F. Cottle, master of the Ruby, says that Stefansson is now on Banks Land, east of the Mackenzie, outfitting for continuance of the explorations to the westward to ascertain the full extent of the new land he has discovered southwest of Prince Patrick's Island. Stefansson discovered a continuation of the continental shelf several degrees west of Banks Land and even deterioration. (Continued On Page Eight)

SEES YANKEE GAME, INVENTS NEW DANCE

Baroness von Rottenthal. Baseball, America's national game has invaded the sphere of the class dance, and has made its appearance in a new interpretive dance originated by the talented Croatian dancer, Baroness Irma von Rottenthal. The baroness witnessed a baseball game, after which she went home and developed the new dance called "The Temptation of Eva."

NEW NOTE READY FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, Sept. 17.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing had a general conference on international affairs today just before the secretary left for a ten-day vacation. No pressing developments in any of the situations confront the United States are expected until Mr. Lansing's return. Mr. Lansing announced that the new note to Great Britain on interference with American trade had been completed. Its dispatch had been delayed not only to gather complete information, but because the United States was unwilling while negotiations with Germany were at a critical point, to be placed in the position of being forced to protest to Great Britain in order to obtain acquiescence by Germany in the view point of the United States on the subject. It is not believed that the note will go until some definite word is received from Berlin on Germany position in the submarine cases. One of the most interesting features of the note is said to be the American government's vigorous objection to the British government's attitude that the burden of proof rests upon the owners of ships of cargoes, the United States holding that it is the duty of the British to prove the guilt of the shipper. The president conferred at length with the secretary on Mexican affairs. Views of all the pending situation will be sought tomorrow at the meeting in New York before decision is made as to future steps.

DESIGNATES RALLY DAY

Columbus, Sept. 17.—In a formal proclamation, Governor Willis today recommended that Sunday, October 3, which has been designated as Rally Day by the Sunday schools and churches of the state be generally observed.

Foraker III, Is To Be Operated On

Cincinnati, Sept. 17.—Greatly weakened by overwork and the suffering from an old prostatic malady, former United States Senator Joseph H. Benson Foraker is to be operated on at Christ hospital Friday. The distinguished statesman was able to sit up, but according to his physician, Dr. Gordon F. McKim, he was in no condition to withstand an operation. Without the surgical treatment, the physician announced Mr. Foraker cannot hope for complete recovery. The former senator's condition is aggravated greatly, the physician reports, by physical fatigue caused by overwork. The time for the operation has been set several times but on each occasion it was found that Mr. Foraker was not strong enough. The attempt may be made in a couple of weeks again. The patient is optimistic and feels hopeful of quick improvement and recovery.

I ain't a bettin' man but I'll wager that if your Uncle Sam'd would announce his intention of 'manufacturin' all his war materials himself there'd be a sudden an' mysterious cessation of interest in "national preparedness" in certain quarters. We've simply gotta beat that Ironton show—even t' th' weather. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Fair tonight and Saturday; slightly lower temperature tonight. Kentucky—Fair tonight and Saturday. West Virginia—Fair tonight and Saturday; slightly lower temperature tonight.

Pests I Have Met... By Van. No. 29--The Style Slave

W. H. the whistle has blown for "at straw," he says as he looks at the sensible men who are wearing straw hats just because they have sense enough to cast the straw hats aside and keep their heads cool just as long as the sun shines down. The pest has so little brain matter that it doesn't matter much what he puts over his dome. It is just as hot as blazes and while the pest might feel it it won't hurt him just as long as the sun shines down. This is the same guy who has been walking around the streets during the past week with a heavy straw hat on accompanied by a regular winter hat. The reason he does it is because he is a slave to style. It is almost as bad as the weather, in this respect, and I believe that if fashion and style were abolished that men should go down to the barefoot this pest would be glad to do so. The Style Slave has also been seen to walk up behind these sensible men who wear straw hats as long as the weather is hot, and kick these "offensive" hats. It has always been my wish

Peace Dove Bryan May Fly O'er Sea In Search Of Olive Branch

Washington, Sept. 17.—Plans to send former Secretary Bryan on a mission of peace to the warring nations of Europe were the subject of a conference here today between the former cabinet officer and Dr. William Forgo, representing editors of American newspapers published in foreign languages. Before visiting Mr. Bryan, Dr. Forgo in a public statement set forth the plan as so far developed which contemplated a personal visit by Mr. Bryan to the belligerent nations to argue for peace. In his statement Dr. Forgo said that Mr. Bryan had already given him the impression that if the trip was undertaken, Mr. Bryan himself, "will for the love of the cause not only sacrifice his time but will also pay his own expense." The statement lauded the former Secretary of State, saying that, "In all Europe in belligerent or neutral countries there is no American held in greater esteem than Mr. Bryan." Dr. Forgo said Mr. Bryan probably would announce his plans after today's conference.

GRAND JURY REPORTS 47 TRUE BILLS

27 Indictments Are Secret; Dynamite Cases Investigated

Forty-seven true bills were returned by the grand jury, which submitted its report to Judge Thomas Friday afternoon after having been in session since Monday afternoon. Twenty-seven of the indictments were kept secret, the other twenty having been made public. No information was given as to the nature of the secret indictments, although it is thought that some of them pertain to the dynamite horror near Sciotoville a few weeks ago.

Seventeen cases were ignored by the grand jury, which examined 111 witnesses during the five days. The indictments made public are as follows:

Gather Hodenhamer, forgery, two counts; publishing and uttering a forged instrument, two counts. Hodenhamer is the Indiana man who is accused of forging his brother's name to a check at a local bank.

William Rhines, cutting and stabbing with intent to wound. Rhines is accused of having stabbed Wade Melvin in a North End alley several days ago.

Charles Beeler, cutting and stabbing with intent to wound. He is charged with having stabbed his foreman, W. J. Gladwell, near Sciotoville, a few weeks ago.

William White, assault with intent to wound; carrying concealed weapons. White was captured a few days ago while trying to stage a holdup in Vaughters' grocery in the North End, on the night of Sept. 9th.

Alex Gruber, carrying concealed weapons. Gruber, it is claimed, was arrested in a C. & O. Northern rail camp with a loaded revolver in his possession.

Mark Brown, burglary and larceny. Brown is charged with burglarizing Jesse Marshall's saloon, Thirtieth and Railroad streets, on the night of July 11th.

Robert Roberts, burglary and larceny. Roberts is charged with the theft of a pair of gold cuff links from the home of Dr. Allard.

Charles Hill, shooting with intent to wound; pointing and discharging firearms, 11th. It is alleged, from some boys who were bathing in the Ohio river near Sciotoville several weeks ago.

John Washington, robbery, and Ollie Sanders, robbery. They are charged with attempting to hold up John Smith on Eleventh street on August 25th. They were also indicted jointly.

Charles Stendum and John McNeal, unlawfully cutting timber. They are charged with having cut timber on Judge A. T. Holcomb's place at Scioto Furnace.

Arthur Clark, shooting with intent to kill. Clark is charged with having shot James Carter on April 25th last.

The following bills were ignored: Joseph Smith alias "Florida Kid," and William Jones, "Jungle Shine." Both were suspected of being implicated in the murder of James A.

Baucus last December. They will probably be released from jail at once.

Emory Horr, burglary. Lawrence Kelley, rape. William Biggs, false pretenses.

Walter Barber, larceny. Charles A. Palmer, larceny. Boyd Evans, carrying concealed weapons.

Orval Price, shooting fire crackers. William McWilliams, embezzlement.

John Arthur, challenge at fist-cut.

The case of Arthur J. Emrich, charged with abandonment of minor child, was passed for the present.

Before adjournment the jury made an inspection of the county jail and reported to the court that everything there was in a satisfactory condition.

Judge Thomas thanked the jury for the expeditious manner in which it conducted its work, and discharged the members, subject to call.

AFTER THE SPOILS.

C. C. Phillbrick, who was appointed by Governor Willis as a member of the state board of administration, is a clever sort of a man personally, but if he ever took any deep interest in the blind and the deaf and the dumb and the insane and the epileptic of the state, no one ever heard of it. As a matter of fact, Mr. Phillbrick's chief ambition has been to attach himself to some office and failing to secure office under Governor Cox, he at once became violently anti-Cox. Now he will be just as violently pro-Willis since our good young governor has smiled upon him at the rate of $4,000 a year. Of course the Willis selections for this important board indicate that he expects to return to the spoils system in the Ohio benevolent institutions, really considering his appointees nothing else could be meant.

It simply goes to show the weakness of the board of administration idea. It may be all right if the appointing power is a man of high ideals and selects his men accordingly, keeping in view the good of the patients and the tax payers solely. When places are filled with the sole idea of grabbing political power and offices, then the central control board will break down of its own weight and mismanagement and extravagance will follow in its wake. That is as certain as anything can be.

The old plan of individual trustees for each institution is far preferable to a central board composed of petty politicians.

A SOCKDOLAGER.

When Virginia and West Virginia papers engage in a wrangle it is generally brought to an end before coffee and pistols are called for, by the former saying: "Shut up and pay us what you owe us."

That is intended as a clincher and it generally is. Of course, its reference is understood. West Virginia owes Virginia thirteen million dollars, according to a decision of the federal supreme court, and she is showing neither effort nor inclination to hand over the cash. The problem isn't at all, as a paper now and then wishfully hoots: "How is West Virginia going to pay the debt?" but: "How is Virginia going to enforce the payment of the debt?" It is just to add to the joy of back yard neighbors that the Old Dominion papers are ever sneering and nagging about the debt, it riles the Mountain State fellows so they just go dumb.

MR. BRYAN AND A DESK.

Out east the newspapers are throwing another spasm over Bryan. This time the gravamen of his offense, so to speak, consists in the circumstance that going out of the office of secretary of state, he took with him a desk that had been in use by secretaries for half a century. To the custodian he turned over the sum of $300 to get another desk to replace the one carried away. There is no claim that this sum is less than the intrinsic value of the piece of furniture removed.

Bryan's desire to possess the desk was merely sentimental. There is no indication that the government has lost anything by his action. Yet, as the uproar that has followed may possibly indicate to him, he has been guilty of a serious impropriety. He ever mixes up a deal of preachment with his politics and it is last for him above all others, to be lax in regard to his official obligations, to hold lightly their requirements. While his was not a positive wrong, it was a disregard of the law and in violation of the law originates all perversion and evil in government.

There are 789 women in Germany who have more than 20 children each. The Imperial Government has been preparing for war in many ways than one. We quote from a Berlin news item: As indicating the distribution of children to a family, it may be mentioned that 82,921 women had twelve children, 42,629 had thirteen, 27,064 had fourteen, 14,624 had fifteen, and 17,337 sixteen children or more each. As many as 759 women had more than twenty children. Altogether the 7,250,000 Prussian mothers had given birth to 23,312,698 children, or an average of four children each.—Gallipolis Tribune.

A year ago one of our friends was out on a hunting expedition and when his gun blew up on him, came near to making a swift journey to Kingdom Come. He came home vowing that never again would he imperil his precious life in the hunting field. Wednesday morning the same man was up at break o' day and away with a brand new gun to seek out and shoot squirrels. The edge of danger had been dulled by time.

The 1915-model corsets are coming down so low and the 1915-model skirts are going up so high that some day soon we are going to add to the general confusion by writing a brief poem beginning: "Standing with reluctant feet where the skirt and corset meet."
—Ohio State Journal.

An engineer who is connected with street paving work hereabouts, remarked Wednesday that in 40 days it would be possible to go from the Scioto bridge to the Little Scioto bridge, above Sciotoville on paved streets. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be hoped for.

But a day or two ago, Portsmouth won something in the base ball world, we don't know just exactly what it is called, but we notice most people have forgotten about it already. Such is glory, it vanisheth like smoke.

ALL IN A DAY'S NEWS.

USE FOR UNMARRIED MEN.

(Ohio State Journal.)
 So many people are trying to speak for God these days. The most of it is blasphemous. For instance, a preacher in New Jersey says, "God has no use for an unmarried man." One might with more truth say that, judging from that preacher, God has no use for preachers. There are many unmarried men that are just as good as many married men, also possibly God wouldn't have made them so. Of course it is a mystery, why a man should be unmarried when there are so many attractive women around. That being the case, every unmarried man has his own private reasons for continuing in that state. If he hasn't, his failure to get married is a fault, as well as a misfortune.
 But it is the habit of speaking for God is what we criticize. When a person so speaks he simply expresses his own view, which may be the product of an empty and rotten life. All the great potentates engaged in the present war claim that God is on their side and they all pray to him for victory. The only prayer for victory that can be answered is for warfare that does not shoot down women and children; and God has more use for an unmarried man who is clean and upright than for a married man that isn't so.

Aha! We've told you we're no prophet, but don't fail to put it down that we set it down months ago that the Scioto bridge would not be completed before November was here and well advanced.

"In these troublous times," remarked the man on the car, "when nations are being wrecked by strife and turmoil, nothing is more consoling than our blessed constitution's guarantee of life, liberty and the pursuit of political office."—Toledo Blade.

Judging by the astonishing number of men indicted for gambling by a recent grand jury at Gallipolis we rather imagine that Col. Sibley's town is also noted as being an oasis for the devotees of the green cloth.

For three years Portsmouth has suffered by reason of atrocious roads leading into the city from all directions, most of the trouble being due to the improvement of the roads. Now the end seems to be in sight, at least there is daylight ahead. Next year Portsmouth will no longer be known as the blockaded city.

Speak it softly. The temporary bridge is again open for traffic and the bars on the Buena Vista paving will be taken down Monday. That means, if the worst happens and one has to leave the town there is one way out.

While the borrowing is good the British-Franco commissioners mean to borrow a billion, though they came over after only half that amount.

A Little Bit More Summer

A little, bit more summer—Oh, yes, a little more! That golden spell of beauty ere the memory be o'er! A little bit more summer Just to help us keep the song When the wind begins to whistle And the winter nights are long!

A little bit more summer—though the sun may sting and burn! A little bit more summer ere the leaves to crimson turn! A little bit more summer In this life that knows so well The stormy and the shadow And the things that haunt to tell!

A little bit more summer—just a day or two of grace, With that sweetness of the violet in the sunshine of her face! A little bit more summer, Ere she turns through yonder door, With her dreams to be remembered While she smiles on us no more!

A little bit more summer—we can stand another glance From her eyes of burning beauty as we join her in the dance! A little bit more summer Just to kiss and light the stream Where our hearts will hold her ever In the sunshine of a dream!

New York, Sept. 17.—The once nimble skipping of Daisy James, a well known show girl, are gone but Daisy has harkened to the call of Broadway just the same. She lost both feet in a railroad accident in East Orange and her mother was taking care of her when she decided that she could not stay away from the Bright Lights.

Two of her former companions came after her one evening, carried her out to a taxicab and now she is living with them in a theatrical hotel down town. She says she left her mother's home because she could not stand the quiet. She wanted to mingle with her old time pals.

When reporters called, she threw aside a gay afghan, showing the legs out just below the knees. "There is nothing more for me," she said. "I'm done, but that is no reason I must forsake the White Way. I can be an onlooker. I want a little peace, so you reporters just tell the dear public that I intend to go on the stage as a tight rope dancer."

Col. John H. Davis, of Lexington, Ky., and Brighton Beach, N. Y., former jockey, trainer and owner of thoroughbreds, has just reached his 90th birthday. The large fortune he accumulated is gone and he is now caretaker of the New Brighton Theatre at Brighton Beach, Coney Island.

He occupies a room high up in the theatre building, with a window facing the old Sheephead Bay race track, where a quarter of a century ago he was paid a hundred dollars a day as judge.

He sits at his window in the evening and gazes off toward the track, listening again in memory to the roar of the spectators and the subdued heat of galloping hoofs. "Do you ever watch the auto races on the old race track?" he was asked. He drew himself up proudly, "No, suh!" he answered emphatically. "A contest is no contest in which there is not the element of speed and endurance of animal life."

New York has its first Cingalese restaurant. Twenty-one members of the Royal Cingalese Troupe of Jugglers, temporarily out of vandeille, are now balancing soups and curry before astonished patrons at the cafe on Eighth avenue near Forty-Second street.

Just before the war a dozen members of the troupe went abroad to appear in Belgium. They have never been heard from so those who were left opened up the Ceylon East Indian restaurant. It is Cingalese from proprietor to dishwasher.

Of course curries are the specialties in this transplanted bit of Ceylon. The Cingalese, you know like their neighbors the Hindoos, are keen for the hot stuff. Curry being the chief dish, hot mangoes and chutney are served on the side. Ceylon tea is used to remove curry burns.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK, THICK, GLOSSY Look years younger! Try Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur and nobody will know.

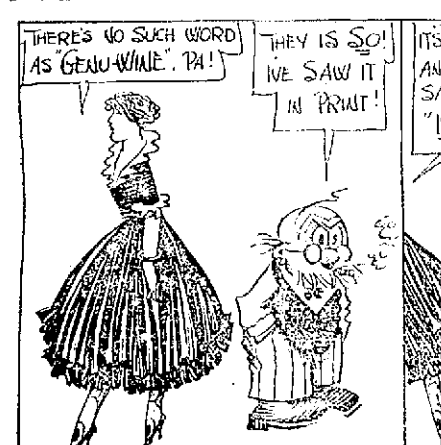

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays are simply ask at any drug store for "Fowler's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle for about 20 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you deranged your hair, as it does if you use any other. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

LAST PIER COMPLETED

The Dravo Contracting company poured their last batch of concrete on the Kentucky bank pier opposite Sciotoville at two o'clock Friday afternoon.
The event was heralded by the blowing of whistles of the com- pany's boats.
The Dravo Contracting co many had the contract for build- ing the twenty-seven piers for the U. S. A. railroad.

SOUTH WEBSTER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kallenback was beautifully decorated Wednesday with golden-rod and ferns in readiness for the wedding which took place there at 8 o'clock in the evening. The bride, Miss Jessie Kallenback, is the third daughter of the household and one of South Webster's most popular young ladies. The groom, Mr. Fred Shape, son of Mr. Thomas Shape, is employed at the Buckeye Brick plant, a young man well worthy his estimable young bride. The attend- ants were Miss Lottie Kallenback, sister of the bride, and Mr. Charles Paul. In the absence of Rev. Elven and Rev. Bastia, who are at confer- ence, the impressive ceremony was performed by Dr. Edward Warner, mayor, in the presence of only the immediate relatives and friends.

The bride was unusually attrac- tive in her wedding gown, a modish creation of white silk crepe. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of long stemmed bride roses tied with wide white ribbon. The bridesmaid was attractively gowned in pale green silk and also carried a large bouquet of roses.

The wedding march was beauti- fully rendered and music was sofly played during the ceremony and congratulations. After the wedding an elegant four-course dinner was served to the guests, who included only the immediate family and Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Stevens and family, with whom Miss Lottie Kallenback has made her home for some time. For the present they will reside with his parents.

Mrs. Harry Kuhner and son, Ray- mond, returned Wednesday from a few days' visit with relatives in Portsmouth.
Mrs. Rebecca Hainer, who has been very ill, is improving and able to be out again.
Mrs. Ransie Hunter, of Lora, is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Israel Neff returned home Saturday after a delightful week spent with relatives in Portsmouth.
Miss Wilma Prosch, who has been suffering with a severe case of ivy poisoning, is improving now and hopes soon to enter school.
Mrs. R. S. Stewart and daughter, Nellie, are spending a few days visit- ing relatives in Ironton and at- tending the Apple Show.

Miss Flora Shoop, of Ironton, is visiting home folks.
Mrs. Thomas Shoop and Mrs. Wm. Kallenback spent Thursday in Iron- ton taking in the Apple Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stewart and children, Bernard and Mary Mar- garet, of Black Park, are visiting relatives here.
Mrs. Henry Kinker, who is spend- ing a few weeks with relatives in Columbus, will return Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Preles and family, of Scioto Furnace, were visiting relatives here this week.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Sept. 17.—Special causes were reflected in today's early stock dealing. General Motors whose directors yesterday de- clared a fifty per cent dividend opened with a gain of 17 points at 280 ascending to 291, 20 points above all previous records. Stur- debaker also made a new high rising 3 to 120 1/4. Colorado Fuel yesterday's strongest feature, opened with 3,000 shares at 52 1/2 to 54, against yesterday's close of 52 1/2 and then rose to 54 1/2; Willys Overland gained 3 to 139 and other specialties were frac- tionally higher. United States Steel was unchanged at the out- set, then fell off a fraction, only to recover half a point over yester- day at 75. Union Pacific, Reading and Atchison were nom- inally lower but these and other railways were seriously depressed in London, lines ranging from 2 to 5 points.

There was considerable con- fusion of prices during the busy first hour, some high priced specialties reacting while less prominent stocks like Pressed Steel Car, American Car, Repub- lic Steel, the locomotives and the Great Northern Ore were higher by 1 1/2 to 3 points. Automobile shares, mainly Maxwell's and Goodrich, gathered fresh impetus from the liberal disbursement of the General Motors Company. Lat- ter some seasoned industrials and equipments, including General Electric, advanced materially and United States Steel rose to 75 1/2. Bethlehem Steel and Crucible Steel were lower. Pressure against the railways was lifted at midday when trading dwindled. Bonds were firm.

Heavy trading in specialties at variable gains, to the accompani- ment of unconfirmed rumors, fea- tured today's active market.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Wheat showed strength today as a re- sult of reports of a broadening demand in Europe. The smallness of the contrast stock on hand here made the September op- tion advance more rapidly than other deliveries. On the upturn, however, there was rather free selling by leading houses. Open- ing prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 @ 1/4 off to 2 advance with De- cember at 96 1/2 to 97 1/2; and May at 99 to 100 was followed by something of a reaction and then a fresh rally.

Corn hardened with wheat. At first, though, the market gave evidence that the ideal weather was not being altogether lost sight of. After opening unchang- ing to 1/4 lower, prices secured mod- erate gains all around.

Oats reflected the strength of other cereals. Trade was light.

Support was lacking for provi- sions. Declines, however were not of a radical sort.

Subsequently assertions that Northwestern farmers were sell- ing stored wheat on quite a lib- eral scale tended to bring about a setback, especially as Winnipeg futures were relatively much low- er than the same options here. The close was weak, ranging from 1 to 1 1/2 net lower to 1c advance with December at 95 1/2 and 1 1/2 and May at 98 1/2.

Increased arrivals from the country acted later as a handicap on the bulls. The close was steady at 1/4 and 1/2 under last night.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 80.

Dear Dolly Wise.—I love a young man here in Sciotoville who runs a motor boat and I can not live without him. Please tell me what to do.

ONE WHO IS IN LOVE.

I told you the other night what to do. Why go crazy over one man when there are about 800,000,000 in the world. You need not do anything. If he wants you he'll tell you so.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is it possible to wash feathers at home? I live out in the country and do not like to send them to the city to have them renovated.

COUNTRY READER.

Divide the feathers into several parts, and put them into bags made of cheesecloth or white mosquito netting. Fill a boiler half full of cold water, and add 1-2 cup of borax, or any preferred washing compound. Clean one bag of feathers at a time. Boil 2 hours, drain and rinse by pouring hot water over them. Hang on the line and turn bags frequently. It may take several days to dry them. Beat with a carpet beater until light and fluffy. Put the feathers into a new tick.

Dear Miss Wise.—What do you think of a fellow who goes with a girl a year and eight months and then goes with a girl of no account without his steady knowing it?

JEALOUS GIRL.

Unless a boy is engaged to a girl, he is free to go with any one he pleases. The boy would probably not agree with you when you say that the girl is "of no account," and perhaps he knows. You ought not say anything against the character of a girl, even if you have "heard things" about her.

Dear Dolly.—I have certain spots on my body which grow very large at times. I would like to know of a remedy to get rid of them.

ARE YOU READY FOR YOUR TRIP? TAKE HORLICK'S Malted Milk

When you are traveling, camping, motorizing, fishing, or getting ready in a moment, a good light lunch when tired or run down. Simply dissolve in water, hot or cold. A fine night's rest is assured if you take a cupful before retiring. Our Lunch Tablets are the same of convenient nourishment. Dissolve a few in the mouth when fatigued or hungry. Sample free, HORLICK'S, Racine, Wis. No Substitute. "Lustas Good" as HORLICK'S, the Original.

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN 1400

1400. A charming little frock. Girls' dress with or without bolero, and with two styles of sleeve.

Dotted chaffin in rose and white is here combined with rose taffeta. The style is also pretty for "wall over" flouncing, batiste, lawn, dimity, crepe or crepe de chine. It could be made with the bolero attached to the skirt in over-blouse style and so worn with a glimpse of contrasting material. The waist is cool and dainty in low neck outline, and practical and serviceable with the wrist length sleeves and collar. The skirt is full and gathered, lined, underlined, edging, flits or ruffles could be employed as desired.

mining for this style, while a simple hem finish is also good. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8, and 10 years. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for a 6-year size for the dress, with 1/2 yard for the bolero.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Orders for patterns are forwarded to New York to be filled. Hence it requires several days for the pattern to reach the purchaser. Patterns can not be ordered by telephone. Do not use postage stamps for larger denomination than two cents.

CAUTION—Order adult patterns by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

Coupon
This pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents. Name, number, name, address, etc., plain text to Pattern Department, Portsmouth Daily Times, Portsmouth, O.S.

Not knowing the nature of the spots I cannot advise you. Consult a physician; it is the only safe thing to do.

Dear Dolly.—Do you think a sterling silver handled fountain pen would be a nice birthday present for my husband or would you get him a box of cigars?

WIFEY.

Get the fountain pen. Men like to buy their own cigars.

Dear Miss Wise.—I have light brown hair that is soft and silky, but it gets so oily that I have to wash it every week. I am using soda to remove the oil and preserve the color of my hair. It comes out by the combfuls, even the new hair. I have been advised to use sage tea and alcohol, but I think the sage tea will darken the hair. Is this true?

MARY JANE.

Sage will darken the hair, and soda will split the ends. For a tonic use tincture of alcohol, camphor, one-half dram; tincture of opium, one-half dram; tincture of nuxvomica, two drams; codon oil, three-quarters of an ounce; alcohol, two and one-half ounces. Shake before using. Massage nightly into the scalp before using.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am engaged to a young man seven years older than I am, and we have each other very much. His people do not want him to marry me and my people don't want me to marry him. It would almost kill me to give him up. And yet I want to have our people act the way they do. Do you think they will cause us trouble after we are married? Is January a good month to get married in? What color would be the best to get married in in the winter time?

BLUE EYES.

If both of your parents object there must be something radically wrong with either one of you. I would investigate the step before I look it. Are you old enough to be a wife and experienced and trained for the job. He sober and industrious and has enough money to get married. Don't let sentimentality overrule your good sense in the matter. If you are certain that the risk is a good one, don't let the attitude of his people affect your after-life. One month is just like another and it doesn't matter what color you are married in so long as it is becoming to you.

Dear Miss Wise.—I went with a girl for about a month, and at a social gathering one of my friends told me something he said she said about me. I believed him, and the girl and I parted in anger. I refused to go home with her. Since then I have come to believe that what he told me is false or else he told her something about me that caused her to say

Did I do right in not going home with her?

I never did anything other than what I mentioned to cause her to dislike me. If I had I would have apologized, because I liked her very much. How can I regain her friendship, as I want to find out the truth. I have seen her since, but she does not speak to me. Please advise me.

BENJAMIN.

You did an unpardonable thing in not taking the girl home. Perhaps she will be willing to forgive you for it and for believing the man without consulting her, but I wouldn't blame her if she didn't. Write her a letter of apology and tell her that you did not realize at the time what an awful thing you were doing.

Camp Eagle Pass, Texas, Sept. 13, 1915.—Dear Dolly.—I am a little soldier boy away down in Texas just across the Rio Grande from Mexico, and haven't seen an American girl for two years and I will ask you to help me getting started corresponding with some little girl of Portsmouth. I am crazy to hear an American beauty speak. I am a cook in the quarter master corps and am 23 years old, dark hair and brown eyes, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weigh 150 pounds, and have a loving disposition. Any nice little girl who would care to correspond with a lonesome soldier boy, please write.

MR. FELIX HURT.

Eagle Pass, Texas.

Care G. M. Corps, 17th Infantry.

E. M.—If you were in the city you could probably get work in a New Boston, and is not very well known to let your husband "run over" you. Stand up for your rights and do not let him run around the way he has been doing. Taft street is a hillside street in Stewartville addition, New Boston, an dis not very well known even to residents of the village. The street, a little over an ordinary square in length runs east up the hillside from Harrisonville avenue two doors south of Holley's store. There are only about six houses on this short street.

5 PARTS—A true to life, soul stirring story of tremendous force, it teaches a great moral lesson, it will deeply impress you. You will never forget it. Come in the afternoon and avoid the evening rush.

YOM KIPPUR WILL BE OBSERVED SATURDAY

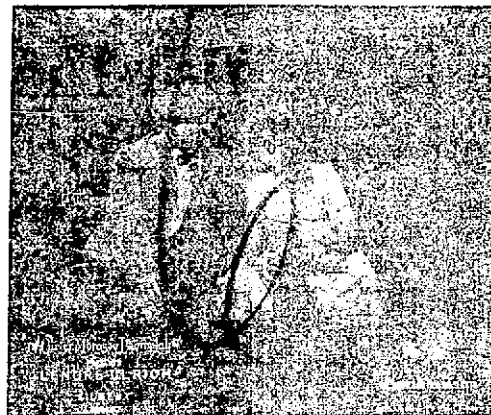

The great awe inspiring Yom Kippur or Day of Atonement, will come again Saturday. This day is universally observed among the Jewish congregations all over the world as a day of fasting and prayer. On this day the individual approaches his God asking for forgiveness of his sins and for attainment of pardon for all his shortcomings. Most of the members of Jewish congregations spend the greater part of the day in the temples and synagogues, turning away from their daily vocation and devoting thought and mind to God and to a higher life. All Jewish places of business are closed on this day. Services will be held at the Temple, corner Washington and Third streets, Friday evening at seven-thirty and Saturday morning at nine-thirty o'clock. Memorial services Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. Rabbi Friebof will officiate at all of the services and the choir under the leadership of Mrs. Phil Wickerham, will render appropriate music. The public in general and especially strangers are cordially invited to attend the services.

The Movies

Lenore Ulrich in "Kilmeny" Columbia Tonight.

Tonight is Paramount night and this week's production is a beautiful story of gypsy life entitled "Kilmeny," featuring Lenore Ulrich. Miss Ulrich's sensational acting in "The Bird of Paradise" has made her known from one end of the country to the other though she is a girl hardly out of her teens. She starred in the Hawaiian classic for the past two seasons, and her success was so astounding that in practically every theatre she played the orchestras had to be dismissed so that the space could be devoted to extra seats. During a period when the American theatre like every other drama of strange complications, featuring King Baggot. Tomorrow's show, in addition to our big regular program, we will have a two-reel Chaplin production.

THEATRICAL

The new frolic at the Sun theatre was well taken judging from the attendance yesterday. Three reels of pictures and two excellent acts of vaudeville make up the program and Manager Hamilton certainly emphasized the fact that he was showing the biggest show in town for a time. Campbell and Brady with their juggling comedy and dancing lived up to their billing as artistic entertainers while the Gotham City Trio certainly sang themselves into favor. The picture was a three reel called "The Sky Hunters" which was very good. The picture program will be changed daily and the program for today will be a two reel Selig "The Smouldering" and one reel Biograph "His Singular Lesson." Under the policy the pictures will be changed daily so any time you drop into the Sun you will always see something new and entertaining.

Guests Left $15 For Kids

RUSSIAN ARMIES ARE FALLING BACK

London, Sept. 17.—Petrograd admits the Russians are falling back in the direction of Pskov, capture of which was announced yesterday by the Germans. Occupation by the invaders of this town may be expected to facilitate greatly the progress of field marshal Von Mackensen's forces through the Pripiet marshes. Owing to the prorogation of the Duma domestic affairs are occupying the attention of the Russians. Although no official reports have been received from British or French sources severe fighting seems to be under way again on the Gallipoli front. The Turks according to their reports have made several successful attacks in the region of Amara. Home and Athens continue to send out reports that the defensive power of the Turks is weakening, but no confirmation of the news has been received. Dispatches from Greece express strong belief that Turkey and Bulgaria have definitely reached an agreement but in the near east it is not believed this will lead to actual participation in the war by Bulgaria on the side of the central powers. Nor is an immediate offensive by Austro-German forces expected against Serbia. Artillery combats continue on the western front. The German reply to French guns is growing in intensity. Save First

We urge every one who is earning anything at all to make a savings account the first item of importance in his necessary expense list.

Determine to save a certain part of your earnings. When your money is paid to you take out this amount, and then plan your expenses from the balance.

By so doing you will have a certain definite sum earning interest for you—and the accumulation will give you a working capital later on when you may need it.

The Royal Savings & Loan Co. will help you save and will pay 4 per cent interest, compounded quarterly on your deposit.

STEAMER SANT ANNA ARRIVES AT AZORES

London, Sept. 17.—The Fabre Line steamer Sant Anna has arrived at St. Michaels Azores, according to a dispatch to Lloyds. The fire in No. 2 hold has been extinguished. The Sant Anna transferred 605 passengers to the Italian steamer Ancona bound for Naples.

Wireless message from the Sant Anna was received at Italy last Sunday night saying that she was on fire and in need of assistance but a later message announced that she was safe and proceeding to the Azores, under convey of the Ancona of the Italian line.

The Sant Anna had on board 2,039 persons, including between 1600 and 1700 Italian reservists.

AMERICAN WOMAN PHYSICIAN AIDS WOUNDED RUSS AT BATTLE FRONT

American woman physician on horseback at front.

That women should be doctors on the battlefield is something unusual, but that an American woman should volunteer her services to the Russian medical division and actually serve at the front as a medical assistant to a Siberian regiment is something extraordinary. This American woman doctor (name deleted by censor) has been with a Siberian regiment that has battled its way almost to the gates of Moscow, and has accompanied the retreating regiment into the interior of Russia.

Tomorrow "Cup of Life" At Lyric

There are so many fine qualities about "The Cup of Life" that we cannot give it the praise it richly deserves. Thos. H. Ince, who has produced many of the greatest pictures of earth, is responsible for this extraordinary drama alone. The main story is that of a proud and beautiful young girl in humble circumstances who chooses the "easier way" in preference to the gloomy prospect of a marriage in her lowly station of life. She dashes herself against the restraints of environment in vain until the back door to a life of beauty is offered to her.

Man is the tempter. That seems to be his social role. No one blames him for selecting beautiful girls and making the perpetuation of their beauty an impossibility by an unsanctioned relation. There may be an evolutionary reason behind it all. Women of great beauty and light principle may not be worth perpetuating, but this destruction is constantly going on. The beautiful girl has all the desires of her heart satisfied but one—the love she gives, like the love she receives, is shallow pretense. In truth, her egoism is so constantly fostered in a gay life that she loses all realization of her debt to society.

In striking contrast to the career of the beautiful girl is that of her plainer sister who marries a mechanic, to whom her simple heart goes out in natural selection, and they pass through a bitter struggle together. Existence for them is a series of hardships, but they are comrades in the battle and every sorrow and trial is sweetened by a beautiful unselfish love. "The Cup of Life" and the big powerful story it tells is logical and consistent, appealing in its settings of contrasted loveliness and ugliness, admirably typed. It is deeply human and impressive. You will see it, and you will always be glad you saw it.

At the Exhibit

"The Round Up" a great four act wild west feature is the attraction tonight. This is a representation of Sioux City frontier days, depicts scenes from a large Indian encampment, their war dances and different ceremonies, all featuring broncho riding, cattle lassoing and feats of horsemanship by Indians and cowboys. This production has 200 thrilling scenes of gripping interest and will command the greatest attention from start to finish.

Tomorrow the patrons of the Exhibit theatre will be offered a big whole sanded story that will stir the heart depths of any who see it. The picture is entitled "On the Night Stage." William S. Hart considered one of the peers of dramatic acting in the movies takes one of the principal parts in this picture. Robert Edison also takes a prominent part. The picture is a Mutual master production and is one of the best that can be secured. It is shown in

At the Majestic

Patrons of the Majestic theatre will tonight be treated to one of the most humorous comedies ever brought to Portsmouth when they see Chester Conklin in the celebrated Keystone comedy "The Cannon Ball." This picture is highly endorsed by all who have seen it as a scream from start to finish. It is pure comedy all the way through with Chester Conklin at his best. Edwin Thacher tonight is also presenting one of his entertaining dramas entitled "Through Edith's Looking Glass." Tomorrow's attraction will be "His Superficial Wife" with Walter Edwards starring.

The Arcana

The great Nestor comedy, "Behind the Screen," a riot of fun at the Universal City, featuring Edith Lyons, Victoria Ford, Lee Moran and the director, A. L. Christie, will be the headline at the Arcana tonight. By these pictures patrons of the picture shows have the opportunity of witnessing the trials and tribulations of the director as well as the many comical events that occur. These films show the actors' side of circus life and one laugh follows another as you gaze on the various maneuvers that take place in order to produce the pictures and the man who receives your sympathy is the director. He is like the man of many boils, he has troubles of his own. "What Might Have Been" and "Bay of Seven Isles" complete the program, with a possibility of Chaplin pictures. Don't overlook this great bargain program and miss hearing the fine music at the Arcana—all for the small sum of five cents.

5c Temple Theatre

We have a picture tonight in two parts, a Majestic production, entitled "Big Jim's Heart," a very strong western play, featuring Teddy Sampson and Charles Clary. The sheriff loves Elsie, daughter of a ranchman, George White. The third is an American production, entitled "The Mighty Hold," a story of baby's unconscious influence. The cast includes Helen Ross and Roy Stearns. The fourth reel is a comic production entitled "Facher Love."

At The Strand

The feature headliner at the Strand tonight is "Honour," a two reel Gold Seal production with three great Universal stars, Herbert Rawlinson, Wm. Worthington and Anna Little.

Third, "There's Many a Slip," is a Nestor riot of fun, with Neal Burns, Jack Connolly and Billie Rhodes.

The New Corsets and Brassieres Are Pleasing

It is not necessary these latter seasons to keep constantly advising madame that her suit or gown will appear to an immeasurably greater advantage if fitted over a perfect fitting, correct style corset. It is the correct thing to do—and women are doing it more and more—to be fitted firstly with the corset that you, particular form demands. When this is done, correctly by a professional corsiere, as we have constantly in attendance, any gown or suit will appear to a much better advantage. Some of these models will fit your form:

Gossard Front Lace Corsets

These are primarily for slender and medium figures and the new models taper a little at the waist line, thus deviating from the straight lines. Gossards retail for

CALLS WILSON'S ACT ONE OF GOOD FAITH

Berlin, Sept. 17.—(Via London)—Reports received here that President Wilson will make no formal reply to the German government's communication concerning the sinking of the steamship Arabic but will confer confidentially with Ambassador Von Bernstorff. These negotiations are confidential for the present, it says, but there is a definite reason for hoping that they will lead to a favorable result.

where he probably is now. It is the intention of Stefansson to establish a base on Banks Land and continue his exploration from that point.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17.—First definite findings that the world has received from Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, for a year and a half were received today by the naval department which sent him and his companions on their perilous trip to the frozen north. The advice from the explorer were meagre but sufficient to show that he and his companions are safe.

Stefansson's advice came from Nome, Alaska, in the form of a message, signed by himself and dispatched from Baillie Island on August 31. The message follows: "As unavoidable delays threatened and the running cost of chartering Polar Bear was high I purchased her and engaged her on terms similar to Karluk. Engaged Hoff, engineer at Schooner Ruby, to take place of Blue of Alaska. Engaged five extra helpers for southern parts who have ample outfit for one year and Polar Bear for two years. Plan to continue northern explorations to land and forty-five west and eighty-two north if early course is secured."

Stefansson's determination to proceed with his explorations despite the loss of the Karluk, the chief vessel in his original expedition, shows the calibre of the man and this news was received with gratification here. WILLIS HAS CHARGE vision of the law whereby the governor is given the power to approve appointments and their salaries.

The attorney general holds in an opinion rendered today, that since under the new civil service law, all employees who took a non-competitive examination to retain the positions they now hold must be re-appointed in order to continue in their present positions, their re-appointments must be approved by the governor.

Auditor Donahue today wrote to Governor Willis and the heads of eight state departments whose appointments must receive the executive's sanction, advising them that he will not approve further payrolls unless the governor or somebody duly authorized by him shall approve each and every appointee. Auditor Donahue was today awaiting another opinion from Attorney General Turner before deciding whether to change his declared intention of refusing to issue warrants for the salaries of provisional appointees. The auditor holds that the first opinion of Mr. Turner on this point was not clear and decisive. Tentatively therefore, he has decided to issue no warrants in cases where more than one person lay claim to the salary of a given position.

Representatives of labor here are planning to call on Governor Willis and protest against the appointment of J. C. Callery, of Hamilton, as chief examiner of steam engineers, under the state industrial commission, to succeed Otto M. Enzemann of Cincinnati. They said today they would ask that Enzemann be reinstated and call attention to the fact that the position heretofore has been held by a union man. Callery, they declared, is not a member of organized labor.

PARADERS PROTEST

dered them to move on.

The proposal is said to have been made by American bankers that the commission would be given a loan of half the sum originally asked was widely credited today. The commission let it be known soon after its arrival here that it was seeking a billion dollars. Five hundred million, it is said, has been promised.

This proposal has not appeared to be altogether acceptable to the commission and it is believed the sum will be increased by $100,000,000 or possibly to $750,000,000 before negotiations end.

Whether this big credit should be used to pay for shipments of war munitions as well as wheat, cotton and other commodities has been the subject of much discussion among the conferees.

Increasing willingness on the part of the so-called pro-German financial institutions here to participate was manifest today. Many of these banking houses, it was said, if invited, would subscribe large sums to a credit loan which would operate toward a continuance of the present prosperity enjoyed by American exporters.

The presence of the commission here and the publicity given their negotiations had a tonic effect on the foreign exchange markets. Sterling was up today to $4.70, more than twenty cents above its low level of three weeks ago and other foreign money values were correspondingly strengthened.

Thompson Says He Feels 'Fit As A Fiddle'

Some man who had the reputation of being wise, and was naturally supposed to know whereof he spoke, once said, "That the devil is good when he is sick."

Let that go for what it is worth, we are all sure of one thing, and that is that no one who has suffered and has found relief, ever makes a statement like the following from Mr. Thompson, with a motive other than that to help others so afflicted.

Mr. Thompson lives at Number 1417 Findlay street, Portsmouth, and is employed by Kapa Bros. He says: "I feel 'fit as a fiddle' since beginning to take Tanlac. It is great, and I have felt better since taking it than I have in a long time. This medicine seemed to fix up my stomach, right from the first few doses. Then it relieved me of nervousness. A number of my neighbors are taking Tanlac."

SHOWS WAGE RATES OF OHIO INDUSTRIES

Columbus, Sept. 17.—Fred C. Croxson, chief statistician of the State Industrial Commission, today made public figures showing rates of wages paid in Ohio industries during 1914, based on reports of 14,776 employers of five or more persons, and covering 779,929 employees. The statistics are considered the most complete along this line ever gathered in Ohio.

Employees are divided into three classes, "wage earners," including many grades of work from laborers to skilled mechanics, "bookkeepers, stenographers and office clerks," and "sales people" (not traveling), including a majority of clerks behind the counter. Each of these three general divisions are subsequently divided to show comparison of men's and women's wages in each.

An idea of the completeness of the statistics may be gathered from the fact that the 623,196 figures, represent one out of every three of the male population of the state and that 145,698 women or one of every 12 of adult female population probably all the wage earners, are represented.

Difference in wages paid men and women is shown by these conclusions, stated in Mr. Croxson's report: In the wage earner's division the percentage of men receiving less than $15 a week is 57, while for women is 97. Forty-two percent of these wage earners under 18 years of age are paid less than $6 a week, but 65 percent of girls under that age. The division of bookkeepers, stenographers and office clerks, which includes a large proportion of women, men receiving less than $10 a week are 11 percent; women receiving less than $10 a week, 45 percent. In the salespeople division, in which there are more women than men represented men receiving less than $15 a week are 36 percent; women receiving less than $10 a week, 92 percent.

There are 779,929 adult wage earners represented in the report. Forty-five percent of these are paid between $10 and $15 a week; 37 percent between $15 and $25; 20 percent less than $12; 7 percent less than $15; 27 percent between $12 and $15; 1 percent between $25 and $35; 1 percent less than $5.

In the report 98,181 adult wage earners "wage earners" are represented. Thirty-two percent of these are paid between $5 and $10 a week; 31 percent between $10 and $15; 17 percent $15 and $20; 17 percent $20 and $25; 3 percent $25 and $30; 3 percent $30 and $35; 1 percent $35 and $40; 1 percent $40 and $45; 1 percent $45 and $50; 1 percent $50 and $55; 1 percent $55 and $60; 1 percent $60 and $65; 1 percent $65 and $70; 1 percent $70 and $75; 1 percent $75 and $80; 1 percent $80 and $85; 1 percent $85 and $90; 1 percent $90 and $95; 1 percent $95 and $100; 1 percent $100 and $105; 1 percent $105 and $110; 1 percent $110 and $115; 1 percent $115 and $120; 1 percent $120 and $125; 1 percent $125 and $130; 1 percent $130 and $135; 1 percent $135 and $140; 1 percent $140 and $145; 1 percent $145 and $150; 1 percent $150 and $155; 1 percent $155 and $160; 1 percent $160 and $165; 1 percent $165 and $170; 1 percent $170 and $175; 1 percent $175 and $180; 1 percent $180 and $185; 1 percent $185 and $190; 1 percent $190 and $195; Master Plumbers Issue A Statement In Controversy; Give Their Side Of Trouble

The following statement was given out by the Master Plumbers today:

At the solicitation of a great many of the people of Portsmouth, who are interested in the progress of the city and the well being of its people, we desire to make a statement relative to the trouble between the Master Plumbers and the Journeymen Plumbers of this city. The Master Plumbers at the very outset of the trouble have demanded but one thing, and that is that they be permitted to bid and contract for any job of plumbing in the city or vicinity, and that they be permitted, after they obtain the contract, to do the work; they have been, and are being denied this privilege by the so-called Building Trades Council, of this city. In other words, the people of the city who have plumbing work, the contracting plumbers, and the journeymen plumbers are being used as a club to settle difficulties arising in other crafts of work, with which they have no contractual relations whatever. Without going into detail, with regard to the actual break between the Master Plumbers and the Journeymen Plumbers, we desire to state that on Tuesday the 31st day of August, representatives of local No. 577 Journeymen Plumbers' Union of this city called upon the undersigned and asked whether or not the Master Plumbers would be willing to appoint a committee composed of Master Plumbers only, to meet a committee of Journeymen Plumbers, composed of Journeymen Plumbers only, for the purpose of adjusting the difficulties and adopting a trade rule that would be acceptable to both parties. We informed them that the Master Plumbers of this city would be glad to appoint a committee to meet a committee of the Journeymen Plumbers; these committees were appointed. The Master Plumbers appointed Mr. Fred Schmidt, William Tritscheller and W. W. Watrous, the Journeymen Plumbers appointed William Lynn, general organizer, William Goetz and Fred Burkhardt and Joseph Nolin, president of the Plumbers' Local. These committees met and after one or two days arrived at an understanding and agreement; it was reduced to writing, in which the Master Plumbers agreed to pay each Journeymen the wages demanded by the Journeymen Plumbers, and in which the provision permitted a Journeymen Plumber to receive one-half (1/2) day's wages if he worked a single minute for his employer. The Master Plumbers further conceded the hours of labor, the rate for over time and the holidays demanded by the Journeymen Plumbers, in fact a complete agreement was reached on every proposition. The committee of the Journeymen Plumbers informed the undersigned committee that they would submit this written agreement to the entire membership of the Plumbers' Local, on the night of Tuesday, September 7. On Wednesday, September 8th, the representatives of the Journeymen Local notified this committee that this agreement had been presented to a meeting of the members of the Plumbers' Local and had been adopted and agreed to by the said Local. Later on we have noticed the various newspaper articles in reference thereto.

The agreement contained the following clause, being Article 13, Section 1. The employer and employee hereby agree that they will not retain membership with or join an organization that will in any way interfere with carrying out their part of this agreement. This committee has been informed that outside parties object to this particular article. We have not received from the committee of the Journeymen's Local any statement or any particular clause of the agreement that is objectionable. This agreement is in writing and the Journeymen Local are at liberty to publish it so that the people of this city may see and know whether or not our statement is true.

The Journeymen of this city were granted the wages asked by them.

RESERVISTS OF GREECE ARE CALLED

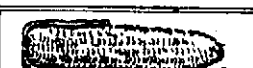

Paris Sept. 17.—A further large number of troops is reported by the Balkan agency to have been called to the Greek colors. The Athens correspondent of this agency says a royal decree has been issued calling out reservists of the classes of 1883, 1887 and 1888 on October 1.

AMERICAN IS HONORED BY BELGIANS

New York, Sept. 17.—Friends of Francis T. Colby, formerly a New York lawyer, received word today that he has just been appointed a lieutenant in the Belgian army after having been cited in the orders of the day for bravery under fire. For the last ten months Mr. Colby has served as a leader of a motor ambulance squad attached to the Belgian army. Lieutenant Colby is a son of Rear Admiral Harrison Gray Otis Colby of the United States Navy, retired, of Boston. He is a Harvard man, was formerly an officer in squadron A of the New York National Guard and is known as a big game hunter in Alaska and Africa.

CLOSED THREE DEALS

Three important deals in realty were closed Friday by H. A. Bierley. Mr. Bierley sold two cottages owned by Dr. J. E. Rogers in New Boston to Attorney Frank W. Moulton. He sold John Shonkewiler's fine lot.

WELCOMED BY IRONTON SIREN

One of the pleasant little incidents of the Portsmouth excursion to Ironton Thursday evening was the blowing of the siren whistle of the Ironton city water works as the special train came into the station. It is "some whistle" and it was very much present with its greetings to the visitors.

LEGS ARE PARALYZED

Henry Jones, who fell from a porch on which he was working, Wednesday, continues in a serious condition at the Hopstead hospital. His legs are paralyzed from the hips down and he is hardly able to move a muscle in his body. He fell a distance of 12 feet and alighted on his spine.

Physical Training Classes To Be Organized By Miss Mason

Miss Catherine Mason, of Williamson, W. V., arrived in the city Friday to organize physical training classes among the Portsmouth school teachers.

Miss Mason will give lectures on physical training. After a course of lectures the teachers will be more able to teach their pupils physical training, which will be taught along with the ordinary studies.

Miss Mason will also complete arrangements for her first lecture, which will be on Saturday, September 23, in the high school building. The lectures will be given each Saturday for ten weeks between the hours of four and five o'clock.

At the end of the ten weeks a public demonstration will be given by the pupils, showing just how much progress has been made with the physical training.

Miss Mason is a graduate of Surgeon's School of Boston and is now teaching physical training in the Williamson high school. Miss Mason formerly resided here.

SCHOOL WAS DISMISSED

Students in the elementary grades of the public schools were again dismissed at the noon hour Friday, on account of the excessive heat. Periods in the high school were also shortened, owing to the heat wave.

RIDAPILE CONES

Germes irritate and enlarge the blood vessels, which creates piles. A new treatment for piles is a recent discovery of a New York Specialist. This scientific remedy contains a powerful non-poisonous germicide and astringent which removes the cause that creates piles without inconvenience to the sufferer. Ridapile Cones are quickly obtained, pain banishing, itching immediately ceases. Bleeding is stopped; protruding piles and hemorrhoids reduced after a few applications of the Cone. A free trial according to directions, restoring these parts to their healthy condition. Ridapile Cones remove the cause by killing the germs. The Cone exerts a healing and soothing action and a trial brings immediate relief. Ridapile Cones do not contain OPIUM, MORPHINE, COCAINE, or other NARCOTICS. PRICE 50c. and $1.00. Jackson Man Is Switzer's Secretary

James Tripp, rising young lawyer of Jackson, has just been notified of his appointment to the position of private secretary to Congressman R. M. Switzer of the tenth district, succeeding Willard Gustin of Portsmouth. Mr. Tripp will be remembered, made an energetic campaign against Frank Delay for the Republican nomination for probate judge, and though not land this plum, made many warm friends who will be glad to learn of his good fortune. The position requires approximately six months service per year and carries with it a salary of fifteen hundred.—Wellston Sentinel.

Warriors At Work

Coach Hart put the high school warriors through another hard practice Thursday afternoon. The boys will be in fine trim for the opening game on October 2 at Gallipoli. The first scrimmage was held Friday and every afternoon from now on scrimmages will be part of the day's work. Practice will be held at Millbrook park Saturday afternoon.

Gets Job As Coach

Columbus, Sept. 17.—Arthur S. Kiefer, star guard on the Ohio State University football team for three years and one of the most reliable and consistent players ever turned out by the institution, has accepted the position of coach at Marysville College, Marysville, Tenn. Kiefer had a number of offers and only decided to accept the Marysville position recently.

During his football career at Ohio State, Kiefer was one of the most conscientious players on the team. In the 1911 season he took part in every quarter played.

O. W. U. Is Getting Ready

Delaware, O., Sept. 17.—Fifty candidates for Ohio Wesleyan's football team were expected to report to Coach E. W. Dixon here today for the formal opening practice with Coach Dixon in charge was begun for the first time under the ruling of the Ohio Conference which does not allow opening of practice with coach in charge until the actual day school opens.

Otterbein Is At Work

Westerville, O., Sept. 17.—Otterbein football men took their first workout on Thursday with about a dozen men on hand. It was registration day, so the attendance was not large nor expected to be so. It is hinted that Captain-elect Elmo Lingard of Wyalia, Ohio, may not return to school. Antioch college has made him an offer to coach the team and play with it, and he may accept the offer.

UMPIRE BYRON PULLS NEW ONE

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Umpire Byron who engaged in a fight with "Red" Smith of the Boston Nationals, after yesterday's game at the local National league baseball grounds, today offered a public apology for his part in the affair. Byron stepped in front of the grandstand just before Thursday's test with Brooklyn, and told the fans that he was sorry that he had taken part in yesterday's mixup.

Use English Tracks as Big Prison Camp Now

The cessation of horse racing in Great Britain has resulted in a scheme on the part of the English home office to use the tracks for the internment of "alien enemies." Galwick, situated in one of the most beautiful parts of Surrey, with a large grand stand and members' building with plentiful water supply, is now being put in order for their reception. About 30,000 Germans, Austrians and Turks have been rounded up in London alone, and the task is not completed, at least not according to late reports.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 17.—Moore Brown, an outfielder, has been sold by the Western League club to the St. Louis National League club, according to an announcement here today.

EXPECT NEW TENNIS CHAMP WILL BE BEST

Tennis experts are saying that William M. Johnston, new national tennis champion, is now as great as Maurice McLaughlin, former champ, and will be even greater. They argue that Johnston is still young, only twenty, and hasn't reached his full strength yet. A few years of experience and more weight and strength will make him a wonder, they say.

Johnston, with Clarence Griffin of California, won the national doubles title at Forest Hills, N. J., a few days ago, after Johnston had won the national singles title from Maurice McLaughlin. Johnston's admirers gave vent to their enthusiasm by carrying the young victor off the field on their shoulders.

P. H. S. Schedule

Portsmouth High School's football warriors will open the 1915 season in Gallipoli Saturday October 22. Prof. Robert Meeks, business manager of the high school gridiron eleven, has contracted for seven games. November 13 is an open date and complete arrangements have not yet been made for the Thanksgiving Day game but efforts are being made to bring the South High eleven of Columbus here for that day. No return games have been booked with Huntington, Ironton or Wellston. The locals will be on foreign soil for the first two battles and then home for four games in a row. Following is the schedule of contracted games.
October 2—P. H. S. at Gallipoli.
October 9—P. H. S. at Wellston.
October 16—Huntington here.
October 23—Jackson here.
October 30—Gallipoli here.
November 6—Ironton here.
November 13—Open date.
November 20—P. H. S. at Jackson.
November 27—Open date.

Heat Kills Animals

The present heat wave is playing havoc with the live stock all over the county. The Portsmouth Chemical company received seven calls Friday morning to remove dead animals which had fallen victims to the heat. Six were horses and the seventh was a cow. The calls came from every section of the county.

So heavy was traffic on N. & W. train No. 16 leaving for Ironton Thursday, at 11:30 p. m., that two extra coaches had to be added to take care of the additional traffic due to the Ironton Apple Show.

At A Dizzy Clip

The Boston Red Sox, having held the lead in the American League since July 19, generally are conceded the pennant. On July 1 the Red Sox were in second place, with Chicago leading. The Red Sox at that time had won 35 and lost 23 games for a percentage of .604, while Chicago had won 45 and lost 21 for a percentage of .682. From July 1 to July 15 the Red Sox won 19 and lost 8. From July 15 to August 31 they won 30 and lost 11. From July 1 to September 14 they won 51 and lost 20. No one can deny they have traveled at a pennant-winning clip.

BEST CLUB WON SERIES

(Marysville Bulletin) Portsmouth has a good ball club, in fact in some departments they are superior to the Marysville aggregation, but it surely seems strange that the locals, who proved to be the greatest impediment in the Cobs' fight for the rag during the regular playing season, should be so easily disposed of by the Springfielders in the championship series. Whether or not the series just closed was a "frame up" is a matter of conjecture, but it is quite certain that many local supporters are of the opinion that things were not as they should have been.

Sharman Drafted

The New York Giants have drafted Sharman of the local team, President Gableman, using officially notified Friday. Sharman will probably not join the Giants until next spring. And he will make good. This lad is the class of the Ohio State in the outfield.

Phils Rapped Reds In Vigorous Style

The Phillies drove another spike into the National League pennant Thursday when they walloped the Reds 10 to 3. It really begins to look like the Phils are going to cash in this season.

(Marysville Independent) In the window of the J. T. Kackley & Co.'s store is being displayed several excellent group pictures of the Marysville ball club of this year and also played pictures of the old Marysville club of 1893 of which every Marysville fan is proud. This was the team which beat every thing it went up against, even several of the big league clubs and sent some five or six of the big league's best men to them.

GERMAN ATTACHE AT WASHINGTON MAY LOSE PLACE THROUGH DUMBA'S LETTER

The German military attaché, Captain von Papen, will probably be sent home in disgrace because of his connection with the Dumba affair. Von Papen was mentioned in Dumba's letter as having endorsed the aviation plant strike plan proposed by Dumba to his government. He already has been investigated by government agents on three occasions for illegal activity in behalf of his government.

Song Of The Bills

The following song for the "Bill Parade" was handed "The Times" Thursday. It is dedicated to all Bills of Portsmouth:

The Old Five Dollar Bill
They're talking about the tariff bill, the silver bill and all,
They wrangle through the summer, and they quarrel till the fall,
But of all the bills from Billville, the one we're wantin' still,
An' the bill that buys the boardin' is the old five dollar bill.

Chorus
They talk about your tariff bill, your silver bill and all,
McKinley bill an' pension bill from Billville, great an' small,
But they never made a bill that always kills the bill,
Like the rumpkin up an' crumpled up old-time five dollar bill.

You may rumpkin it, an' crumple it, an' twist it, turn it round,
An' stuff it in your pocket, where it seems to weigh a pound,
Or hide it in your wooden sock or in your boots—but still
There's never no discount in the old five dollar bill.

Chorus
They talk about, etc.

Pimples and Skin Eruptions Danger Signs of Bad Blood

It May Mean Eczema, Scrofula—The First Sign of Inherited Blood Disease

Pimples, scaly itching skin, rashes, burning, itching, and scrofula denote with unfailing certainty a disordered, weak, and impure state of the blood. The trouble may have been in your blood from birth, but it is a matter how you were treated, you may have been treated for 10 years, blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the blood purifier, blood tonic, and blood cleanser. For purifying the blood, nothing is equal to it. The action of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood, it cleanses the system, it drives to the seat of the trouble, acting as a purifier to neutralize the blood poisons. It revivifies the red blood corpuscles, increases the flow of blood so that the blood can properly perform its physical work. The impurities which leave your complexion are driven out. Long standing cases are treated promptly. Do not wait until S. S. S. is too late. Do not wait until you are too late. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. It costs is an appeal and you do. Get S. S. A Drunken Shantyboat Man Fires Upon A Party In Skiff; One Man Painfully Wounded

Bert Burns aged 35 years a C. & O. section foreman of Fullerton, Ky., was struck by five stray shots of a volley fired into a party of young men returning to the Kentucky side in a skiff, by William Porter, a shantyboatman, Thursday at midnight. One lodged just over the right eye and the others in his right arm.

Darius and several friends had received the third degree at the meeting of Portsmouth Council, Jr. O. U. M., and as they reached the river on their way home some of them began singing. When the skiff was about 150 yards from shore a voice from a shantyboat, at the foot of Thompson street, was heard to exclaim, "I'm going to shoot." An instant later the report of a shot gun was heard and Burns felt a stinging sensation near the forehead and on the arm. Seeing that the man was wounded Undertaker O. E. Burke took Burns to his office at Fullerton and called Dr. Bryson to dress his wounds while the others returned to the city and notified the police who arrested Porter about 1:30.

Porter, when seen by a Times man Friday morning, said he had no recollection of the shooting. "I was too drunk to know what I was doing, in fact, don't know whether I shot or not." He and his seventeen-year-old son, George, live on the shantyboat and he has been working for Henry Holly of Fullerton.

Burns and his companions appeared in police court Friday morning to prosecute Porter, who will be held to the grand jury. Those with Burns and Burke in the skiff at the time of the shooting were: Fred Adams, from Davidson, Elva Williams, Hughey Maynes, Floyd and Ballard Cales.

Porter was charged in police court Friday with shooting with intent to kill, Floyd Cales signing the affidavit against him and was held to the grand jury without bond.

Cales appeared at headquarters Friday noon and excitedly told of a big man threatening to kill him if he appeared against Porter before the grand jury. Officers Moore and Bonzo found the man in a Chillicothe street saloon and arrested him. He gave his name as Glenn Denning, saying he lived on a shantyboat.

Denning was also bound over to the grand jury without bond.

INJURED AT IRONTON

Notwithstanding the jam at the Ironton and Portsmouth N. & W. depots Thursday night, only one accident was reported to Passenger Agent H. E. Scott of this city.

Miss Agnes Casper, 19, formerly of Columbus, who is making her home with her sister, Mrs. Lou W. Jewell of 1311 Eleventh street, was injured at the Ironton station while attempting to catch the first train for home. A man attempting to catch the first train held the hand holds on the coach and knocked Miss Casper down. She received severe bruises on her arms and a four inch gash on her left limb inflicted when she fell on the brick platform. She was carried into the waiting station and attended by Dr. Dan Gray and was sent home on the second train. Dr. Albert Berndt met the train here and moved her to the home of her sister. Miss Casper is employed in a local laundry.

Plan Fast Boat Line From Huntington To Louisville

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 17.—To operate a fast river packet between Huntington and Louisville, Ky., was the proposal advanced here Thursday morning by Capt. B. S. Foulk, of the steamer Joe Fowler, and his project met with such favor among business men whom he consulted that it is considered likely a regular service between the two cities will be established within the next two weeks.

Captain Foulk went from Huntington to Ironton and Portsmouth, stating that if he received as much encouragement there as in Huntington, the operation of the new boat would be assured. Captain Foulk had no doubt that he would meet an encouraging reception in these and other river cities.

His plan is to have the boat leave Huntington at 6 p. m. Monday evening of each week, arriving in Cincinnati on Tuesday morning; leaving that city an hour or so later, and arriving in Louisville Wednesday. (On the return trip the boat would arrive in this city in time to leave for Huntington again at 6 p. m. on Thursday evening, returning in time for the departure on the following Monday at the stipulated hour.

It was pointed out that the boat would carry a high class dining service and that Huntington business men desiring to do business in Cincinnati, could obtain a night's rest while enroute and if they desired to go only as far as Cincinnati, could remain there and transact their business, returning on the boat on its return trip, or availing themselves of rail facilities. It would be expected to maintain the boat strictly on schedule, a great improvement over the irregular schedules formerly in vogue, and which often deferred business men from using water transportation.

It would also be expected to develop a large freight business, shipping goods from Louisville to Huntington and reverse without the necessity for rehandling. It is believed such an arrangement would be very favorable also to the local tobacco interests.

Captain Foulk announced that he wanted to start the service next Monday, if practicable.

While in Huntington he was in conference with Chamber of Commerce officials, who seemed greatly interested in the project.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these organs, poisonous waste products remain in the system, poisoning the blood and bringing on various diseases, rheumatism, skin eruptions, etc. One becomes dumpy, nervous, and generally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled, and sad-looking."

"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble raw apple or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of medicinal origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'Santal' tablets—lack of the same—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to invigorate and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Santal tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blemishes, Sallow Skin

(Message of Health.)

Unightly eruptions, pimples, blemishes, sallowness, etc., usually are due to a sluggish liver, a congested bowels, and a polluted blood stream. The use of 'Santal' tablets in such cases is a resort to outward applications, which can never have any permanent effect. It is a very simple remedy to be found in our drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, and at such small cost no one need now be deprived of his youthful beauty."

"Santal tablets" that the name is entirely vegetable and there is no habit-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth, and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing so quick and good for the purpose. The action in the morning is easy, no vomiting, and instead of feeling tired and languid, you feel fresh and invigorated. 'Santal' tablets are not only the most natural and safe remedy for constipation, but also the best for the skin, the most reliable treatment for complexion ailments of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

"They say that the advent of the 'Santal' tablet as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives."

"Santal tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about normal functioning of the bowels, instead of injuring the membranous lining of the intestine. Instead of weakening, they add tone to the intestinal wall and are used so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. The invigoration is another reason for the popularity of 'Santal' tablets. One need never give up a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the ideal remedy for constipation, liver, and skin troubles is 'Santal' tablets. It has finally been found—Druggists Review."

VIGILANTS CLEAN UP MORALS OF OAK HILL HOUSEHOLD

Ben Hur Convention Cut Short By Death Of Dr. J. C. Foster

Oak Hill has been having a genuine sensation, one with thrills, vigilance committees, women night riders and all that goes to remind one of the days of the Ku Klux Klan.

It appears that one Alfin Smith, widower with four children, residing in Oak Hill, concluded to have a housekeeper and persuaded one Mrs. Zella Carter to take the job. Smith's children did not take kindly to the newcomer and as a result Smith thrashed his eldest daughter severely, using a hickory to good advantage. The children told their tales of woe about the neighborhood and what they said about their dad and his housekeeper stirred up the natives.

First a band of neighbor women, wearing masks, called upon Mrs. Carter, the housekeeper and ordered to leave the Smith home. She left at once but that evening she came back with Smith when he returned from his work.

A few days later a band of self-appointed vigilantes raided the Smith home, throwing rocks and breaking all of the windows, loudly calling upon Mrs. Carter to skip out. It is said that Mrs. Carter exchanged shots with the crowd. Finally Mrs. Carter fled from the house in her bare feet, and was pursued for a mile through Oak Hill streets, taking refuge in the Davis livery stable. There she secured a rig and drove to Jefferson Furnace where Smith was employed as engineer. Someone telephoned the sheriff of Jackson county and fearing more serious trouble might ensue he drove to Oak Hill and placed Smith under arrest, ordering the woman to move out.

Arraigned before Justice Delay Smith was placed under $100 bond on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of his children, the case being set for September 24. Smith promised to sever his relations with his housekeeper, fix up his home and take care of his children properly thereafter.

Lima, O., Sept. 17.—W. W. Hoppe, Hamilton, was elected district chief of the Tribe of Ben Hur for western central Ohio at the close of the fifteenth annual district convention here today. Hamilton was chosen for the 1916 meeting place.

Other district officers elected were: P. S. Schmickler, Dayton, judge; Deborah Mitchell, Hamilton, instructor; Mrs. C. E. Heath, Springfield, captain; W. E. Lloyd, Springfield, scribe; J. T. Glemzer, Lima, guide and J. E. Ross, Findlay, inner gate keeper.

Forty-three delegates and more than 300 visitors attended the convention. The activities of the congress were cut short by the death of Dr. J. C. Foster in a Columbus hospital. Dr. Foster was manager for Ohio and West Virginia for the order and was to have been the principal convention speaker.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from terrible troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

IRONTON ELKS ROYAL HOSTS

Ironton Elks kept open house Thursday evening and members of the antlered tribe from Portsmouth, Ashland, Greenup, Russell, Huntington, Chillicothe and Charleston stormed their quarters and were royally cared for, ample entertainment being provided for all visitors.

At one time there were four bands in the big hall and they played a number of stirring pieces, the walls of the place reverberating with music. At the close of the parade the Elks threw their headquarters open and fully 600 Elks were taken care of. It was a riotous night and the Ironton Elks simply covered themselves with glory. There were a lot of frills attached to the entertainment and the event will go down in history as one of the liveliest and most enjoyable in the history of the Ironton lodge.

A committee of ten members kept everything moving and no one suffered for want of wholesome amusement or refreshments. Visiting Elks were unstinted in their praise of the cordial and hospitable manner in which they were received by that bustling band of Ironton Elks.

"TEXAS" TELLS HOW ENGINEER GIBSON WAS KILLED

Alleges He Was Robbing Griffith When Blue Steel Fired Fatal Shot

The case of "Texas" Smith for the alleged murder of Joe Gibson, C. & O. engineer, went to the jury at Catlettburg, Friday morning at 11:25. The jury remained in session until 12 o'clock, then recessed for lunch, reporting again at 1 o'clock. Up to 3:30 p. m. there was no indication of the jury reaching a verdict and there was some opinion that the jury might hang. Smith is said to have made a splendid witness in his own behalf.

William Abraham, alias "Texas," took the stand in his own behalf before Judge Hoberg in the Boyd county circuit court at Catlettburg, Ky., Thursday evening.

Smith's testimony was the only evidence introduced by the defense, and when he had finished court was adjourned until Friday morning. Arguments were expected to last until Friday afternoon, when the case will go to the jury.

Heard Crack Of A Pistol

The Huntington-Herald Dispatch says that "Texas" testified that he was searching Eronum Griffith, when behind him "Blue Steel" killed Joseph Gibson, the railway engineer. "Texas" declared that he turned Griffith around to remove valuables from his hip pockets when he heard the crack of a pistol. He says he turned in time to see Gibson fall.

The negro swore that with "Blue Steel," "Stonewall" and "Road Sport" he was walking along the railroad tracks below Ashland when they noticed two men in a freight car. "Blue Steel," he said, proposed that the gang rob the negro. "Texas" stated that he landed the negro's revolver and all entered the car. The pistol was held on the trainmen by "Blue Steel" while the other searched the victims.

Following the shooting the negroes ran some distance from the scene. "Blue Steel" returned the revolver and departed, supposedly for Dayton, O. "Stonewall" started for Birmingham, "Road Sport" for Norfolk, Va., and "Black Texas" for Cincinnati.

At both the day and night sessions the court room was packed. A large crowd came from Ashland, interest becoming intense. The negro prisoner was apparently undisturbed by the large throng. No disorder occurred during the day.

County Jailor Sam Deboard received a letter from the Dayton, O., police department last evening stating that "Blue Steel" was well. known to the authorities of that city and that his arrest might be expected there sooner or later.

Tell About Capture In Portsmouth

The state completed its case in the late afternoon with the testimony of Captain Grant Cooper and Patrolman Callahan Smith, of the Portsmouth, O., police department. These officers arrested John Henry, alias "Black Texas." The police-men described the actions of the negro, both declaring that he confessed the revolver which he claimed "Blue Steel" used in killing Gibson was his own.

Smith stated that he met "Texas" on a railroad, and noting a gun in the fellow's clothes grabbed him. When the negro tried to pull Smith's gun from the holster the patrolman knocked him down. "Texas" ran a short distance and then opened fire on the officer. Escaping to a corn-field, he was later captured. The gun was found buried in the corn-field later, fully loaded. "Texas" still carried his holster. The negro, according to the two officers, admitted he was in the freight car when Gibson met his death.

Negroes Tell Of Murder

Alexander Calloway, of Martinsville, Va., and William Bailey, of South Carolina, negroes, indicted for the murder, but who are being used as witnesses, told the same story. They identified the revolver found in the Portsmouth corn-field as being that of "Black Texas," and said that he had it shortly before the shooting. They declare the weapon a huge forty-four caliber, had been left in a Portsmouth restaurant a short time when the men were there previous to the murder. The negroes identified "Black Texas," "Blue Steel," "Road Sport" and "Stonewall" as the men who jumped from the freight car in which Gibson was killed. They ran towards the Lexington division, the witnesses declared.

Calloway testified that previous to the shooting "Black Texas" had declared he was hungry and would rob someone that night. This was about thirty minutes before the murder. Otto Newlove of Ashland, the undertaker who took charge of the body of Gibson, stated that the injury which caused Gibson's death was caused by the bullet from a forty-five caliber revolver to the head of his judgment. He found the pockets turned inside out.

Patrolman James Crouch, the first man to Gibson's body, Mrs. James Gibson, the widow of the murdered man, C. M. Griffith, who was with him on the night of the shooting, and W. H. Apple, Coroner H. S. Swaps, and Louis Haidig, of Portsmouth, O., a restaurant keeper, were other witnesses called by the state. Haidig identified the revolver offered in evidence as that left at his restaurant in Portsmouth by "Black Texas."

B. & O. PUMP MAN BURNED TO DEATH

Attorneys Wilhoit, Burns, Diederich and Dysard are representing the state and Attorneys Price and Harris the defendant having been appointed by the court.

The jury consists of J. B. Banfield, farmer; T. R. Brown, farmer; Orlando White farmer; John Lloyd, farmer; Henry Mareum, stockman; J. H. Hensley, farmer; A. J. Boyd, laborer; Andrew Sen, carpenter; R. J. Brown, farmer; Will Howard, farmer; Levi Salyers, laborer; and Lewis Dixon, laborer.

William McGatchy, aged 72 years, a retired bridge builder, who had been the B. & O. S. W. pump man at Hamden, for a number of years past, was fatally burned in an explosion Wednesday night, dying Friday morning at 7 o'clock.

Mr. McGatchy experienced difficulty in getting the engine of the pump started and found that water that had got into the gasoline tank was the cause. Frank Heidel, of Chillicothe, was summoned and drained the tank. McGatchy got down into a pit to refill the tank, Heidel holding a lantern overhead, it is claimed, when suddenly there was an explosion.

McGatchy was enveloped in flames. Heidel in rescuing him from the pit was also badly burned. He threw the aged man into a nearby creek and smothered the flames. McGatchy leaves a wife and two small children.

GREAT CAPTAINS OF FINANCE ARRANGE FOR HUGE WAR LOAN IN UNITED STATES

J. Pierpont Morgan (left) and Lord Reading, photographed shortly after latter's arrival.

Six representatives of England and France are in this country on what is believed to be the most important and comprehensive financial mission ever attempted. The purpose of this mission, which is headed by Lord Reading of England, is to secure a huge war credit of from $500,000,000 to $750,000,000. J. Pierpont Morgan stands at the head of American financiers who are arranging the loan.

SCIOTO COUNTY MAN IS KILLED IN INDIANA

George Henson, 76, a veteran of the Civil War, who was born and reared near Harrisonville, this county, was instantly killed about 10:15 o'clock last Tuesday night, when he was struck by a Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana traction car four miles east of Logansport, Ind. News of his death was received by local relatives Friday.

According to the newspaper accounts of the accident, Mr. Henson was evidently asleep on the truck with his head on a rail. The motorist claims that he did not see his body until too late to check the speed of the car.

Mr. Henson is survived by three brothers, John, of this city, and Jacob and Charles, of Harrisonville. He had been a resident of Cass county, Indiana, for the past 49 years.

Broke Into Room; Fined

Ralph Kountz, who was charged with entering the property of Nick Pappas, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse by the mayor Friday. Kountz formerly occupied the room but after a recent police raid Pappas locked it up. Kountz forced entrance to the place, he said, in order to recover his clothes.

Rev. Connell Wants To Sell Part Of His Household Goods

No word has been received by Rev. A. R. Connell, former pastor of Bigelow Methodist church, concerning a change in appointments so he would not have to go to Malta, where the salary is only $300 per year. Rev. Mr. Connell insists he cannot live on that amount of money as he has five small children and is forced to hire domestic help.

In accord with that resolution the minister has decided to sell part of his effects, preparatory to breaking up housekeeping. He is particularly anxious to sacrifice a Crown piano, almost new, mahogany case, retail price $400, which he offers at $150. He also wishes to sell a L. C. Smith Bros. typewriter, practically new, original cost about $100, for $50. These articles may be seen at the Bigelow parsonage.

If there is no change in his appointment, Rev. Connell plans to give up the ministry for the time being.

HAD RIGHT TO THREATEN SARAH

William Holsinger, a North End grocer, was dismissed on a disorderly charge preferred by a man named Holly in police court Friday, the mayor holding Holsinger was within his rights when he threatened to kick Sarah George out of his place if she did not leave when ordered.

No New Clues In The Check Robbery

There are no new developments Friday in the Montgomery & Lockard grocery robbery. None of the twenty-nine N. & W. pay checks that disappeared from the store has been found. These checks and between $50 and $70 in cash had been secreted in a remote top corner of the store's big refrigerator and must therefore have been taken by someone familiar with the premises.

INSPECTOR IS COMPLIMENTARY

Postoffice Inspector Haverstack, who was here this week, paid high compliment to the manner in which the government property was being looked after. He said Portsmouth had as neat and clean an office as there was in his territory.

Others Disappointed At The Conference

The Enquirer today carried the following dispatch: "Zanesville, O., Sept. 16.—Because he is 68 years old Rev. Franklin Gillilan, of Vanatta, will not be accepted as pastor by the Euclid Avenue M. E. church, of this city.

"The official board threatens to lock the church doors against him. The trustees took formal action and sent a communication to Rev. J. C. Arbuckle, district superintendent, protesting against Gillilan's coming to the church. The members state they want a younger minister.

"Rev. H. S. Bailey, former Euclid pastor, was transferred to Sciotoville, in the Portsmouth district, although he made a request to be sent to one of three churches near Columbus, where his children go to school.

"The congregation claims Arbuckle is acting against the best interests of the church."

IRONTON AMAZED AT PORTSMOUTH DELEGATION

New Record In The Way Of Visiting Is Set By Peerless City; Our Carnival Boosted

Portsmouth went Apple Show mad Thursday evening when more than 2,500 stormed the local N. & W. depot for tickets on the special trains that carried more than 1,800 Portsmouth people to Ironton last evening.

Never in the history of the city has such scenes been witnessed around the N. & W. depot here. Women fainted, men climbed over each other in a frantic effort to get to the ticket window, women had their clothes almost torn off and a number of people had close calls from injury as the depot was packed and jammed. When the first train pulled out and it became evident that all would not be able to get on the second special the throng swayed back and forth and the ticket office at the depot was simply stormed in front and from the rear.

Believing that someone would get seriously injured in the crush Judge A. Z. Blair climbed upon a railing and besieged and implored the excursionists to refrain from getting rough and boisterous.

Scheduled to leave at 6:15 it was 6:35 when the second special pulled away packed to the steps of each coach. Additional police

NEW CORN CURE PRINCIPLE

Dr. Hunt's Wonderful Penetration Method. PRICE ONLY 10c.

It remained for Dr. Hunt of Sidney, Ohio, to solve the corn problem. Folks had tried other remedies with only partial success. So, Dr. Hunt got at the root of the matter by getting at the root of the corn with his wonderful penetration method.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Trim plaster size of corn and apply.

An amazing ingredient, discovered by Dr. Hunt penetrates the corn, exacts it immediately, loosens it root and branch so that in two days the corn lifts right out.

No pain, no throbbing, no bulky uncomfortable pads to press on the sore spot, no discomfort whatever. Wear your regular shoes. Corn is cured while you walk about. Don't use caustic ingredients that eat out the top of the corn and stimulate its further growth. Cure your corn the new way, the scientific way by using Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure. Cures by penetration.

Ten cents brings you a box-full. Guaranteed or money back. Sold by all druggists and shoe dealers. Or, send two cents in stamps to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

Large box, containing 20 plasters, 25c.

rifed heat. It was a memorable trip in many ways and simply shows how determined Portsmouth was to repay Ironton for the magnificent crowd it sent down to last year's Korn Carnival.

Everywhere last night expressions of gratefulness were heard over the size and enthusiasm of the happy, boisterous and carefree throng from the hustling River City. Ironton says it will send a similar delegation down to the Korn Carnival. In fact, Agent R. E. Scott is already at work getting two special trains from Ironton to this city on Thursday when the Fraternal parade will be held.

Everywhere you turned in Ironton last night you faced Portsmouth people. They were in the shows, in the picture houses, in the rest rooms in this and that booth and in the splendid attractions. Portsmouth turned itself loose and showed Ironton something that was admitted on all sides. Of course Ashland and Huntington sent down big delegations headed by brass bands, but the Peerless city just picked up all the honors for attendance at the Apple Show last night and walked away with them.

Passenger Agent R. E. Scott announced today that over 1800 tickets were sold for the specials and that fully 600 people were unable to get anywhere near the ticket office. The doors and windows of it had to be barred finally.

One hundred and seventy-six tickets were sold on the N. & W. noon train Thursday, 90 on the morning train and over 150 on No. 32 leaving here at 7:30 last night. The C. & O. handled many passengers to Ironton on their eastbound trains and it is estimated that more than 3,000 Portsmouth people were in Ironton Thursday to witness the splendid Fraternal parade and to take part in the Portsmouth Day festivities. At least 75 Portsmouth machines loaded with Apple Show visitors made the trip. Ironton newspapers estimated the crowd in their city yesterday as being 40,000.

The first special left Portsmouth last night at 6 o'clock. It made the distance in 48 minutes. This special stopped at Sciotoville and Wheelersburg as advertised, but the second special failed to stop at Wheelersburg and fully 50 people were disappointed. They were at the depot ready to board the train.

24 Coaches On Return Trip

The first special contained nine coaches and the second ten. Returning each train had 12 coaches as three coaches were secured from passenger train No. 32 and two were secured from the R. & O. at Kettova. Every possible effort was made to take care of the terrible rush. Passenger Agent R. E. Scott and Trainmaster T. F. Turkey worked indefatigably to care for everybody, but the task was too great. The time schedule was lengthened as it was almost impossible to coach fares on the trains so densely were the aisles packed. Every inch of space on the two trains was used and it was a common sight to see three and four people jammed together in one seat despite the terrible heat. It was a memorable trip in many ways and simply shows how determined Portsmouth was to repay Ironton for the magnificent crowd it sent down to last year's Korn Carnival.

Every possible effort was made to take care of the terrible rush. Passenger Agent R. E. Scott and Trainmaster T. F. Turkey worked indefatigably to care for everybody, but the task was too great. The time schedule was lengthened as it was almost impossible to coach fares on the trains so densely were the aisles packed. Every inch of space on the two trains was used and it was a common sight to see three and four people jammed together in one seat despite the terrible heat. It was a memorable trip in many ways and simply shows how determined Portsmouth was to repay Ironton for the magnificent crowd it sent down to last year's Korn Carnival.

Everywhere last night expressions of gratefulness were heard over the size and enthusiasm of the happy, boisterous and carefree throng from the hustling River City. Ironton says it will send a similar delegation down to the Korn Carnival. In fact, Agent R. E. Scott is already at work getting two special trains from Ironton to this city on Thursday when the Fraternal parade will be held.

Everywhere you turned in Ironton last night you faced Portsmouth people. They were in the shows, in the picture houses, in the rest rooms in this and that booth and in the splendid attractions. Portsmouth turned itself loose and showed Ironton something that was admitted on all sides. Of course Ashland and Huntington sent down big delegations headed by brass bands, but the Peerless city just picked up all the honors for attendance at the Apple Show last night and walked away with them.

Passenger Agent R. E. Scott announced today that over 1800 tickets were sold for the specials and that fully 600 people were unable to get anywhere near the ticket office. The doors and windows of it had to be barred finally.

One hundred and seventy-six tickets were sold on the N. & W. noon train Thursday, 90 on the morning train and over 150 on No. 32 leaving here at 7:30 last night. The C. & O. handled many passengers to Ironton on their eastbound trains and it is estimated that more than 3,000 Portsmouth people were in Ironton Thursday to witness the splendid Fraternal parade and to take part in the Portsmouth Day festivities. At least 75 Portsmouth machines loaded with Apple Show visitors made the trip. Ironton newspapers estimated the crowd in their city yesterday as being 40,000.

the regular N. & W. passenger trains throughout the day and by autos and motorcycles.

All the Apple Show bands were at the depot to welcome the visitors when the special trains arrived shortly after seven o'clock and then they, together with the Ashland delegation of more than a thousand, joined the crowd of more than thirty thousand that already thronged the streets. The thoroughfares from above Vernon to below Lawrence streets were literally packed with the surging mass of humanity.

"The din was terrific at all times and the carnival spirit predominated, there being few cases of rowdiness noted, and the spirit produced for that massive crowd one of the greatest times in the history of old Ironton. It was stated at Portsmouth last night that approximately 2300 tickets had been sold for the regular excursion trains and that number was increased by those who arrived earlier in the day as well as those who came in other conveyances.

"Every Portsmouthite was a Korn Carnival booster for first, and advertised it to the best of his ability, using a vociferous voice, pennants or tags and literature. The Portsmouthites added what was needed to make the Apple Show one of the greatest festivals ever held in the Ohio valley and every Irontonian cordially thanks them, invites them to 'call again' and assures them one and all that she will reciprocate when Ironton has her inning at the Korn Carnival. From now until the time of the Carnival it will be 'talked up' in Ironton and a gigantic crowd, even larger than the delegation sent here by Portsmouth, is assured. Rivals always, in any field of endeavor, Portsmouth and Ironton always join to make some event memorable and this year the two events that will go down in the pages of Scioto and Lawrence county history will be the Korn Carnival and the Apple Show."

The six initiated were: Walter Crisp, A. D. Burns, Foster Webb, James Smith, Wellington Pack and John Goodman. A large delegation of members from Pullman Council were present.

Portsmouth Council expects to make a grand showing in the Korn Carnival Fraternal parade. All of the members will turn out and Councils within a radius of fifty miles will be invited to come to Portsmouth and march with the local members.

EXPLORER STEFANSSON IS SAFE

NOT HEARD FROM SINCE APRIL, 1914

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17--Announcement was made in government quarters today that Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, has been heard from and was safe. Stefansson had not previously been heard from since April, 1914, and it had generally been believed that he and several other companions had been lost.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 17--The had found refuge on Wrangell Island, where the survivors of the Stefansson expedition ship Karluk sought safety, after that vessel was crushed in the ice 18 months ago. This hope was buoyed up by a circumstantial account received at Nome last April to the effect that natives hunting seal last winter near Ice Cape, on the Arctic Coast of Alaska, reported that they saw a white man marooned on an ice floe, which was drifting in a Southwesterly direction toward Wrangell Island.

With Stefansson when he left Martin Point late in March, 1914, were Ole Anderson and Storker Storkerson, men said to be as strong and resourceful as Stefansson himself. They had rifles, a sled, abundance of food and other supplies.

STEAMER SANT ANNA ARRIVES AT AZORES

London, Sept. 17--The Fabre line steamer Sant Anna has arrived at St. Michael's Azores, according to a dispatch to Lloyd's. The ship in No. 2 hold has been extinguished. The Sant Anna transferred 605 passengers to the Italian steamer Ancona bound for Naples.

ENEMIES OF ALLIES WOULD KILL SCHWAB

New York, Sept. 17--Dr. H. C. Leineweber, who is connected with the music division of the congressional library at Washington accompanied by his wife and child arrived today on the Russian steamer Kursk from Archangel and told of being arrested by Russian police at Dwinsk, stripped and thrown into a cell with five murderers. Last November he and his brother-in-law crossed the Dwina river to Dwinsk to buy supplies.

The same evening Dr. Leineweber said, the chief of police and ten officers entered their room, stripped them, took away all papers and letters and put Dr. Leineweber and his brother-in-law in a small cell with five murderers. Forty-eight hours later the Grodno police obtained their release.

SAULSBURY CALLS JAP PERIL "HUMBAG"

Senator Saulsbury of Delaware returned after a trip with Mrs. Saulsbury to Japan, China and Hawaii. On his visit to the orient he met the rulers and principal men of the two great eastern nations, and devoted himself to a study of oriental affairs. In an interview after his return he declared: "All of this talk of the Japanese peril is to my mind vast humbug."

AMERICAN IS HONORED BY BELGIANS

New York, Sept. 17--Friends of Francis T. Colby, formerly a New York lawyer, received word today that he has just been appointed a lieutenant in the Belgian army after having been cited in the orders of the day for bravery under fire. For the last ten months Mr. Colby has served as a leader of a motor ambulance squad attached to the Belgian army. Lieutenant Colby is a son of Rear Admiral Harrison Gray Otis Colby of the United States navy, retired, of Boston. He is a Harvard man, was formerly an officer in squadron A of the New York National Guard and is known as a big game hunter in Alaska and Africa.

BRAZILIAN WILL HEAD AIR CORPS

New York, Sept. 17--Alberto Santos Dumont, the Brazilian pioneer in aeronautics, who made the first public flights with a dirigible balloon, has accepted an invitation from the Aero Club of America to head a pan-American committee to take charge of a movement to develop aeronautics in South and Central America. In a letter received by the Aero Club yesterday Santos Dumont promised to arrive in this country early in October.

One purpose of the proposed movement will be to hasten a solution of the problems of transportation presented by the mountainous topography of the countries concerned. It is proposed to solve these questions by flying machines.

OCTOBER 6-7-8-9

RUSSIAN ARMIES ARE FALLING BACK

London, Sept. 17--Petrograd admits the Russians are falling back in the direction of Pihlski, capture of which was announced yesterday by the Germans. Occupation by the invaders of this town may be expected to facilitate greatly the progress of field marshal Von Mackensen's forces through the Pripiet marshes.

Owing to the prorogation of the Duma domestic affairs are occupying the attention of the Russians. Although no official reports have been recently received from British or French sources severe fighting seems to be under way again on the Gallipoli front. The Turks according to their reports have made several successful attacks in the region of Anafarta.

Rome and Athens continue to send out reports that the defensive power of the Turks is weakening, but no confirmation of the news has been received.

Dispatches from Greece express strong belief that Turkey and Bulgaria have definitely reached an agreement but in the near east it is not believed this will lead to actual participation in the war by Bulgaria on the side of the central powers. Nor is an immediate offensive by Austro-German forces expected against Serbia.

Artillery combats continue on the western front. The German reply to French guns is growing in intensity.

COAL OPERATORS TO FIGHT RATE INCREASE

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 17--Declaring that they were fighting for their very existence coal operators throughout West Virginia are perfecting their organization to carry before the Interstate Commerce Commission a protest against the proposed increase of 15 cents a ton in freight rates on shipments of West Virginia coal to the North and West.

Earnest Henly secretary of the Kanawha Coal Shippers Association, last night called a meeting of the organization to be held in this city today. He said that the very life of the industry was at stake. The Split and Gas Coal Association, in a statement to the public, said that the proposed increase would close every mine in the state, thousands of miners would be thrown into idleness and commercial interests in every mining community would suffer disaster.

WILLIAM WARM, HUNGARIAN EDITOR IN U. S., CALLED INVENTOR OF DUMBA PLOT

Paris, Sept. 17--A dispatch of the Balkan agency from Bucharest says that the leaders of all the opposition parties in Bulgaria have held a meeting at which it was decided to publish an appeal to the country explaining the international political situation as affecting that nation. The appeal will be made on the ground that under the present circumstances the attitude taken by the government is perilous.

San Francisco, Sept. 17--Miss Frances Jolliffe, of San Francisco and Mrs. Sarah Bard Field, of Portland, Oregon, are on their way to Washington, D. C., carrying with them to present to congress resolutions adopted here yesterday by the women voters' convention and a 500,000 name petition urging congress to enact a national woman suffrage law. The resolutions urge the Susan B. Anthony plan for securing woman suffrage by amendment of the Federal constitution.

William Warm, the foremost Hungarian writer in the United States, is believed to be the man who furnished the brains for the ambitious scheme to cripple American munitions factories by causing a strike of Hungarian and Austrian workmen.

CAUSING WORRY TO CHICAGO GRAFTERS

Barney Bertsche, "clairvoyant king" of Chicago and confessed criminal, is causing great worry to several public officials of Chicago. He says that he paid huge sums in graft to important officials for police protection. Two former city detectives, Walter O'Brien and William J. Egan, have already been sent to the penitentiary for soliciting and accepting bribes from him.

EXTENSIVE PROMISES MADE TO BULGARIA BY GERMAN DUKE

Turin, Sept. 17. (Via Paris)--The Stampa says it has learned from a diplomatic source that Germany has made extensive promises to Bulgaria to obtain that nation's neutrality. It states that these promises were made to King Ferdinand of Bulgaria by the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg territory now held by the various Balkan nations and European Turkey.

tion that King Ferdinand should have the crown of Byzantium.

This dispatch which lacks authoritative confirmation would indicate on its face a promise to Bulgaria of a radical extension of its boundaries. The ancient Byzantine empire included all the Balkan nations and European Turkey.

"Allies Can't Count On Bulgaria's Help"

Bucharest, Rumania, Sept. 16. (Via Berlin and London, Sept. 17) --"The allies know that in no case may they count on Bulgaria's help on the Gallipoli peninsula," says the semi-official Independence Romaine in an article dealing with the Turco-Bulgarian agreement. "They have lost that part of their diplomatic contest in the Balkans. It remains to be seen how the other part will come out."

"King Ferdinand will leave tomorrow for a week's vacation on the Danube. This fact completely disposes of reports concerning the activities of Rumanian troops on the frontier, which in reality are nothing more than the annual maneuvers."

GERMANY HAS LOST TWENTY SUBMARINES

London, Sept. 16--The Germans have lost twenty submarines since the beginning of the war according to an editorial in the Motor Ship and Motor Boat while the British losses have been only seven including the E-7 the destruction of which was announced today.

When the war commenced, the paper declares, Germany had eleven sea-going submarines and sixteen of a smaller type while up to June 1, ten new boats had been added. The assertion is made that the Germans now have only fourteen sea-going midget submarines, two of which are in the Mediterranean.

EXPECT NEW TENNIS CHAMP WILL BE BEST

Tennis experts are saying that William M. Johnston, new national tennis champion, is now as great as Maurice McLaughlin, former champ, and will be even greater.

They argue that Johnston is still young, only twenty, and hasn't reached his full strength yet. A few years of experience and more weight and strength will make him a wonder, they say.

Johnston, with Clarence Griffin of California, won the national doubles title at Forest Hills, N. J., a few days ago, after Johnston had won the national singles title from Maurice McLaughlin. Johnston's admirers gave vent to their enthusiasm by carrying the young victor off the field on their shoulders.

P. H. S. Schedule

Portsmouth High School's football warriors will open the 1915 season in Gallipolis Saturday October 22. Prof. Robert Meeks, business manager of the high school gridiron eleven, has contracted for seven games. November 11 is an open date and complete arrangements have not yet been made for the Thanksgiving day game but efforts are being made to bring the South High eleven of Columbus here for that day the last game of the season.

No return games have been booked with Huntington, Ironton or Wellston. The locals will be on foreign soil for the first two battles and then home for four games in a row. Following is the schedule of contracted games:

October 2.—P. H. S. at Gallipolis.
October 9.—P. H. S. at Wellston.
October 16.—Huntington here.
October 23.—Jackson here.
October 30.—Gallipolis here.
November 6.—Ironton here.
November 13.—Open date.
November 20.—P. H. S. at Jackson.
November 27.—Open date.

At A Dizzy Clip

The Boston Red Sox, having held the lead in the American League since July 19, generally are conceded the pennant. On July 1 the Red Sox were in second place, with Chicago leading. The Red Sox at that time had won 35 and lost 23 games for a percentage of .600, while Chicago had won 35 and lost 21 for a percentage of .622. From July 1 to July 16 the Red Sox won 13 and lost 5. From July 16 to August 31 they won 30 and lost 11. From July 1 to September 11 they won 51 and lost 30. No one can deny they have traveled at a pennant-winning clip.

BEST CLUB WON SERIES

(Maysville Bulletin)
Too bad, indeed, the locals staged such a miserable performance merely because they had to play a post-season series. Maysville fans are the most loyal in the circuit and are doing the team's best efforts. It was evident from the way they performed Tuesday that they were tired playing and wished to end the series. The interest of the fans are shown in consideration whatever by ball players, who work only for their salary. There is no denying the fact that Portsmouth has a good ball club, in fact in some departments they are superior to the Maysville aggregation, but it surely seems strange that the locals, who proved to be the greatest impediment in the Cubs' fight for the regular playing season, should be so easily disposed of by the Springfielders in the championship series. Whether or not the series just closed was a "frame up" is a matter of conjecture, but it is quite certain that many local supporters are of the opinion that things were not as they should have been.

Sharman Drafted

The New York Giants have drafted Sharman of the local team, President Gableman being officially notified Friday. Sharman will probably not join the Giants until next spring. And he will make good. This lad is the class of the Ohio State in the outfield.

Phils Rapped Reds In Vigorous Style

The Phillies drove another spike in the National league pennant Thursday when they walloped the Reds 10 to 3. It really begins to look like the Phils are going to cash in this season.

(Maysville Independent.)
In the window of the J. T. Kackley & Co.'s store is being displayed several excellent group pictures of the Maysville ball club of this year and also displayed pictures of the old Maysville club of 1895 of which every Maysville fan is proud. This was the team which beat every thing it went up against even several of the big league clubs and sent some five or six of the big league's best men to them.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dizziness, headache, no yawning, snoring, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; gentle and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.

Song Of The Bills

W. R. Graham, the local insurance agent, has composed a song for the "Bill Parade", a copy of which he handed the Times Thursday. It is dedicated to all Bills of Portsmouth:

The Old Five Dollar Bill

They're talking about the tariff bill, the silver bill an' all, They wrangle through the summer, an' they quarrel till the fall, But of all the bills from Billville, the one we're wantin' still, An' the bill that buys the boardin' is the old five dollar bill.

Chorus

They talk about, etc.

It's greasy as a marble house from goin' round so much, But a fellow ain't particular when it's ticklin' of his touch; An' the biggest bill from Billville an' the one we're wantin' still is the crumpled up an' crumpled up old-time five dollar bill.

Chorus

They talk about, etc.

It's the bill that pays the taxes, the government to run; If Uncle Sam is cheated, there is sure to be some fun, An' even when we come to wed, as people often will, The bill that pays the preacher is the old five dollar bill.

Chorus

They talk about, etc.

Pimples and Skin Eruptions

Danger Signs of Bad Blood

It May Mean Eczema, Scrofula—The First Sign of Inherited Blood Disease

Pimples, scaly itching skin, rashes, burning sensations and Scrofula denote with unfailing certainty a debilitated, weakened and impure state of the blood. The trouble may have been in your blood from birth, but no matter how you were infected, you must treat it through the blood. It is a blood disease. You must use S. S. S., the standard blood tonic for 60 years. If you expect certain relief. For purifying the system, nothing is equal to it. The action of S. S. S. is to cleanse the blood. It is a thorough system direct to the seat of the trouble—acting as an antiseptic to neutralize the blood poisons. It revitalizes the red blood corpuscles, improves the flow so that the blood can properly perform its physical work. The dull sluggish feeling leaves you—the complexion clears up. Even long standing cases respond promptly. But you must take S. S. S. Drugs and substitutes won't do. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. If yours is a special case and you need expert advice, write to S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga.

EAGLES MEET SUNDAY

Owing to the small crowd Thursday evening, due to the large number of members who went to Ironton, a special meeting of River City Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Korn Karmival matters will be taken up and thoroughly discussed, and the Aerie will decide to what extent it will participate in the Karmival festivities. A bare quorum was present Thursday evening, and no business of importance was transacted.

GERMAN ATTACHE AT WASHINGTON MAY LOSE PLACE THROUGH DUMBA'S LETTER

The German military attache, Captain von Popen, will probably be sent home in disgrace because of his connection with the Dumba affair. Von Popen was mentioned in Dumba's letter as having endorsed the munition plant strike plan proposed by Dumba to his government. He already has been investigated by government agents on three occasions for illegal activity in behalf of his government.

AFTER THE SPOILS.

C. C. Philbrick, who was appointed by Governor Willis as a member of the state board of administration, is a clever sort of a man personally, but if he ever took any deep interest in the blind and the deaf and the dumb and the insane and the epileptic of the state, no one ever heard of it. As a matter of fact, Mr. Philbrick's chief ambition has been to attach himself to some office and failing to secure office under Governor Cox, he at once became violently anti-Cox. Now he will be just as violently pro-Willis since our good young governor has smiled upon him at the rate of $4,000 a year. Of course the Willis selections for this important board indicate that he expects to return to the spoils system in the Ohio benevolent institutions, really considering his appointees nothing else could be meant.

It simply goes to show the weakness of the board of administration idea. It may be all right if the appointing power is a man of high ideals and selects his men accordingly, keeping in view the good of the patients and the tax payers solely. When places are filled with the sole idea of grabbing political power and offices, then the central control board will break down of its own weight and mismanagement and extravagance will follow in its wake. That is as certain as anything can be.

The old plan of individual trustees for each institution is far preferable to a central board composed of petty politicians.

A SOCKDOLAGER.

When Virginia and West Virginia papers engage in a wrangle it is generally brought to an end before coffee and pistols are called for, by the former saying: "Shut up and pay us what you owe us."

That is intended as a clincher and it generally is. Of course, this reference is understood. West Virginia owes Virginia thirteen million dollars, according to a decision of the federal supreme court, and she is showing neither effort nor inclination to hand over the cash. The problem isn't at all, as a paper now and then foolishly hoots: "How is West Virginia going to pay the debt?" But: "How is Virginia going to enforce the payment of the debt?" It is just to add to the joy of back yard neighbors that the Old Dominion papers are ever sneering and nagging about the debt, it piles the Mountain State fellows so they just go dumb.

MR. BRYAN AND A DESK.

Out east the newspapers are throwing another spasm over Bryan. This time the gravamen of his offense, so to speak, consists in the circumstance that going out of the office of secretary of state, he took with him a desk that had been in use by secretaries for half a century. To the custodian he turned over the sum of $300 to get another desk to replace the one carried away. There is no claim that this sum is less than the intrinsic value of the piece of furniture removed.

Bryan's desire to possess the desk was merely sentimental. There is no indication that the government has lost anything by his action. Yet, as the uproar that has followed may possibly indicate to him, he has been guilty of a serious impropriety. He never mixes up a deal of preachment with his politics and it is lost for him above all others, to be lax in regard to his official obligations, to hold lightly their requirements. While his was not a positive wrong, it was a disregard of the law and in violation of the law originates all perversion and evil in government.

There are 789 women in Germany who have more than 20 children each. The Imperial Government has been preparing for war in more ways than one. We quote from a Berlin news item: As indicating the distribution of children to a family, it may be mentioned that 82,921 women had twelve children, 42,629 had thirteen, 27,064 had fourteen, 14,624 had fifteen, and 14,337 sixteen children or more each. As many as 789 women had more than twenty children. Altogether the 7,250,000 Prussian mothers had given birth to 23,312,898 children, or an average of four children each.—Gallipolis Tribune.

A year ago one of our friends was out on a hunting expedition and when his gun blew up on him, came near to making a swift journey to Kingdom Come. He came home vowing that never again would he imperil his precious life in the hunting field. Wednesday morning the same man was up at break of day and away with a brand new gun to seek out and shoot squirrels. The edge of danger had been dulled by time.

The 1915-model corsets are coming down so low and the 1916-model skirts are going up so high that some day soon we are going to add to the general confusion by writing a brief poem beginning, "Standing with reluctant feet where the skirt and corset meet."

An engineer who is connected with street paving work hereabouts, remarked Wednesday that in 40 days it would be possible to go from the Scioto bridge to the Little Scioto bridge, above Sciotoville on paved streets. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be hoped for.

But a day or two ago, Portsmouth was something in the base ball world, we don't know just exactly what it is called, but we notice most people have forgotten about it already. Such is glory, it vanishes like smoke.

USE FOR UNMARRIED MEN.

(Ohio State Journal.)
So many people are trying to speak for God these days. The most of it is blasphemy. For instance, a preacher in New Jersey, says, "God has no use for an unmarried man." One might with more truth say that, judging from that preacher, God has no use for preachers. There are many unmarried men that are just as good as many married men, also possibly God wouldn't have made them so. Of course it is a mystery, why a man should be unmarried when there are so many attractive women around. That being the case, every unmarried man has his own private reasons for continuing in that state. If he hasn't, his failure to get married is a fault, as well as a misfortune.

But it is the habit of speaking for God is what we criticize. When a person so speaks he simply expresses his own view, which may be the product of an empty and rotten life. All the great potentates engaged in the present war claim that God is on their side and they all pray to him for victory. The only prayer for victory that can be answered is for warfare that does not shoot down women and children; and God has more use for an unmarried man who is clean and upright than for a married man that isn't so.

Aha! We've told you we're no prophet, but don't fail to put it down that we set it down moons ago that the Scioto bridge would not be completed before November was here and well advanced.

"In these troublous times," remarked the man on the ear, "when nations are being wrecked by strife and turmoil, nothing is more consoling than our blessed constitution's guarantee of life, liberty and the pursuit of political office."—Toledo Blade.

Judging by the astonishing number of men indicted for gambling by a recent grand jury at Gallipolis we rather imagine that Col. Sibley's town is also noted as being an oasis for the devotees of the green cloth.

For three years Portsmouth has suffered by reason of atrocities leading into the city from all directions, most of the trouble being due to the improvement of the roads. Now the end seems to be in sight, at least there is daylight ahead. Next year Portsmouth will no longer be known as the blockaded city.

Speak it softly. The temporary bridge is again open for traffic and the bars on the Buena Vista paving will be taken down Monday. That means, if the worst happens and one has to leave the town there is one way out.

New York, Sept. 17.—The once-nubly shipping of Daisy James, a well known show girl, are gone but Daisy has harkened to the call of Broadway just the same. She left both feet in a railroad accident in East Orange and her mother was taking care of her when she decided that she could not stay away from the Bright Lights.

Two of her former companions came after her one evening, carried her out to a taxicab and now she is living with them in a theatrical hotel down town. She says she left her mother's home because she could not stand the quiet. She wanted to mingle with her old time pals.

When reporters called, she threw aside a gay afghan, showing the legs out of just below the knees. "There is nothing more for me," she said. "I'm done, but that is no reason I must forsake the White Way. I can be an outlooker. I want a little peace, so you reporters just tell the dear public that I intend to go on the stage as a tight rope dancer."

Col. John H. Davis, of Lexington, Ky., and Brighton Beach, N. Y., former jockey, trainer and owner of thoroughbreds, has just reached his 90th birthday. The large fortune he accumulated is gone and he is now caretaker of the New Brighton Theatre at Brighton Beach, Coney Island.

He occupies a room high up in the theatre building, with a window facing the old Sheephead Bay race-track, where a quarter of a century ago he was paid a hundred dollars a day as judge.

He sits at his window in the evening and gazes off toward the track, listening again in memory to the roar of the spectators and the subdued beat of galloping hoofs. "Do you ever watch the auto races on the old race track?" he was asked. He drew himself up proudly. "No, suh!" he answered emphatically. "A contest is no contest in which there is not the element of speed and endurance of animal life."

New York has its first Cingalese restaurant. Twenty-one members of the Royal Cingalese Troupe of Jugglers, temporarily out of vaudeville, are now balancing soups and curries before astonished patrons at the cafe on Eighth avenue near Forty-Second street.

Just before the war a dozen members of the troupe went abroad to appear in Belgium. They have never been heard from so those who were left opened up the Ceylon East Indian restaurant. It is Cingalese from proprietor to dishwasher.

Of course curries are the specialties in this transplanted bit of Ceylon. The Cingalese, you know like their neighbors the Hindoos, are keen for the hot stuff. Curry being the chief dish, hot mangoes and chutney are served on the side. Ceylon tea is used to remove curry burns.
